The-Sentient

Perceptions of Algoma

CHSORSHIP

IS IT DEMOGRATIG??

Jane Karhi

- AUC Student

Diversity of ideas and the ability to express those ideas without persecution is central to democracy. Challenging ideas make people think, talk, and question their own unique perception of the world - of course the corresponding behaviour called listening is essential to progressive change.

Universities are perceived as the bastions for the free discourse of ideas from the mundane to the controversial. Yet, recently at Algoma University, there has been incidents where posted signs containing "unacceptable" material were removed from the University's premises. The censored student pronounced, " I feel that my freedom of expression has been blatantly violated...every student's freedom of expression is under seige."

ILLEGAL

Lisa Hahn

GENSORSHIP

- Alumni

Recent ILLEGAL CENSORSHIP DECISIONS apparently made by senior management at Algoma University College are deplorable and inconceivable. The Charter of Rights and Freedoms guarantees specific "Fundamental Freedoms", (Section 2(b))...Freedom of thought, belief, OPINION and EXPRESSION...

During January unbelievable acts of CENSORSHIP were taking place at Algoma University College as posters were being ripped off of walls and bulletin boards apparently under the direction of the most senior managers/administrators. Whether the posters contained questionable comments and or distasteful expressions is irrelevant. Excuses such as "use of tape" rather than "plastic gum" were given as the reason for apparent management directives to tear them down.

Cont'd Page 5

Paid Parking at Algoma

I don't like paying to park my car. I don't have a problem with gravel & bumps. I have already paid enough to come here. I don't want to have to pay to park too. Shirley Tomlinson - AUC

Student

Paid Parking Suruey Report

Out of 100 surveys returned :

* $87 \%$ felt that a $$ 100 /$ year parking fee was not fair, but just 32 \% felt the parking lot doesn't need improvements.
* $89 \%$ did not want paid parking, even though only $31 \%$ felt they have been sufficiently informed about the details of this proposal.

I feel that paid parking is a good idea, because it [will] make the parking lot a lot safer, not only for the people but for their cars as well. However, I don't think we should have to pay $$ 100.00$ because that is a bit much, $$ 65.00$ or $$ 75.00$ would be better because then more people could afford it. Tashia Duplantie - AUC

Student

* The paid parking proposal should not be a priority issue at Algoma, according to $91 \%$ of those surveys returned.
* $83 \%$ were returned by students, $7 \%$ were from staff, $6 \%$ by faculty, and $4 \%$ other.
 Thanks to all who participated in this survey!

calvin HODDES nax    ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ? Question for next time:  ?  Do you think Algoma  needs a Student Resitence?

Housing - the "big worry"

Out-of-town CO-OP NORTH students find it's no problem

Co-op educators frequently note that many students avoid out-of-town placements because they are concerned about leaving home for the first time. The biggest single issue seems to be finding an acceptable place to live. They shouldn't worry about it, because it's rarely a problem.

This term, CO-OP NORTH student Michelle Burke was excited when offered a position with IBM Canada in Markham, on the outskirts of Toronto. But with the excitement came concern; the big city seemed bigger when she began to think about finding a place to live. Needless to say, she shouldn't have been worried. A brief trip to Toronto to find housing netted her a nice apartment within walking distance of IBM's offices.

Two students heading to Thunder Bay this term to work in the FedNor office of the Government of Canada had similar results. Donna Cain, hired to work with clients receiving development grants from FedNor, had the easiest time. She just called a friend attending university in Thunder Bay and asked if she would like a roommate to share expenses.

Tom Duncan was offered a position working with new clients seeking grant information from FedNor. Tom has extensive experience as a tourist counsellor during previous summers here in Sault Ste. Marie, and he looked forward to applying his public relations skills in a business setting. But he wondered about finding a place to live in a strange city. So he took a few days to drive to Thunder Bay, scout the city, and try to find a place to live. Finding a nice place at a reasonable rent was easy; the one he found even has a free lunch from CO-OP NORTH when he returns for his next academic term.

Previous CO-OP NORTH students have found housing no problem in Ottawa, Toronto, Cornwall and London. All it takes is a little persistence and optimism, though having friends or relatives in the city is a great help. Often CO-OP NORTH can help by calling co-op contacts for students. And employers who use a lot of coop students sometimes have good advice.

So CO-OP NORTH's advice to students is to put housing worries aside and take the opportunities they have facing them.

Reprinted from CO-OP NORTH News, Fall 1992.

FOR MORE INFORMATION

Please contact:

> Ms. Karen Lapointe
> Assistant Director, CO-OP NORTH
> Algoma University College
> 1520 Queen Street East
> Sault Ste. Marie, ON
> P6A 2G4
> (705) 949-2301 ext. 350

> Fax. (705) 949-6583
> or
> Miss Cindi Johnson
> Liaison Officer
> Algoma University College
> 1520 Queen Street East
> Sault Ste. Marie, ON
> P6A 2G4
> (705) 949-2301 ext. 200

> NOTE: Miss Johnson accepts collect calls

IN MEMORY OF
DR. DANIEL ERSKINE PINE SR.

The passing of Dr . Dan Pine Sr . in December of 1992 was mourned be members of the Native and non-Native community. Dr. Pine had a special relationship with the Algoma University College Community as a recipient of an Honoraria Doctorate Degree in 1988. Dr. Pine. however, had connections to this institution far beyond the memory of many of those at A.U.C. today. Dr. Pine was the last surviving grandson of the great Anishnabek Chief Shingwauk. It was the result of the great Chief's vision of a teaching Wigwam for the Ojibwe people that the property on which A.U.C. is now situated has evolved into the institution we enjoy today. Dr. Pine was always conscious of the importance of the continuance of the responsibility this site has toward meeting the educational needs of his people and took an active part in assuring the 'Trust' of the site was maintained.

Dr. Pine had attained a level of spiritualism very few mortals achieve which enabled him to look beyond the external appearances of those who he came in contact with and whom he equally accepted as his brothers and sisters. Dr. Pine did not equate people with colour, race, or creed; he recognized everyone as children of Mother Earth. Most of us in our lifetime never have had the opportunity to meet such a man graced with these blessings. Dr. Daniel Erskine Pine was such a man. He will long be remembered.

Mike Cachagee, Native Counsellor, AUC

IS' IT  DEMOGRATIG??

There is a sign policy on campus restricting placement, content, and permissibility -- is this democratic?

But, what is "freedom of expression"? Should this freedom mean the right to slur someone? Furthermore, in the age of "political correctness", we have certain responsibilities toward others in the way we express our freedom.

In contrast, Orwell stated that "Freedom is the right to tell people what they do, not want to hear." No one wants to be criticized, but beware of those who have the power to stop it. We could make life pleasant by not talking about or not even thinking about subjects that cause discomfort. Perhaps the suffragists at the turn of the century should have taken this advice, keeping controversial thoughts of the emancipation of women buried deep in their heads. Democratic rights for only the "right people"??

The bottom line $\rightarrow$ should students be prohibited in posting or advertising opinions deemed publicly offensive, indecent or abusive? What is considered offensive, or indecent, and who decides? One author gave his own definition of the Freedom of Speech: [A] "volatile and dangerous substance, similar to mace -- Far too much of it in the hands of the wrong people." (Lapham, Harper Magazine, Dec 90) Are you a member of the "wrong people"?

Even Algoma University, tucked away in the cold stiff North, cannot, and should not escape a healthy and necessary discussion on the freedom of expression. Surely we realize that one individual or group does not have the monopoly on the truth. By the way, who decides what is healthy? -- let's take a vote -- hang on, let me light my cigarette.

> Jane Karhi - AUC student

What Do You

ILLEGAL GENSORSHIP

but, under whose self-imposed authority were the posters taken down many other times when 'plastic gum' was used? Is this a Public Institution funded by the taxpayer of is this a private corporation?

Believe it or not, AUC is a university therefore, Academic Freedom and the Charter of Rights and Freedoms must apply. NO policies have been approved by Senate, Staff, Faculty, Students, Alumni or the Board on posters or their content. If one suddenly appears it has been created in the same nondemocratic, dictatorial manner as the ILLEGAL CENSORSHIP Decisions.

As a graduate of this pathetic little institution I am shocked and appalled that the student body and all other internal groups have not protested against glaring examples of complete disregard for individual freedoms, rights and freedoms guaranteed by law and Academic Freedom traditionally guaranteed by institutions of higher thought. In my opinion immediate changes to the existing governing structure are required at AUC in order to establish a university free from unilateral decision-making and to promote a return to freedom and democracy.

The Charter Development/Restructuring Committee was mandated to do this exact thing in a consensual manner so that a free-standing university could be created in this city. Those that appear to be responsible for recent CENSORSHIP DECISIONS appear to be responsible for the failure of Charter Committee meetings to be called since October. Perhaps democracy and consensual decision-making pose too many threats.

No respectable student body and no self-respecting university community permits CENSORSHIP of any kind. What then does this make Algoma?
A) CARS & ENERGY

AND CARBON DIOXIDE EMISSIONS.

B) MORE CAR ENERGY

STAV TUNED

A PROPERLT KTHNED CAR CAN USE NEARLY ATHIRD LESS FUEL THAN ONE WITH A STICKING CHOKE, AND A WELL-TUNEDVEHICLE PUTS FEWER EMISSIONS INTO THE AIR THANTHE BADLY-TUNED ONESYOU CAN SEE SMOKING ALONG THE ROAD.
C) CARS : ENERGY & THE ENVIRONMENT

D) KNOW YOUR WAY TO ENERGY CONSERVATION

If you answered FALSE to all of the above, you're on your way to using energy wisely.

Final

STOP

 Student February 25th 7:30 pm
INFO NIGHT sponsored by AUSA.

All students must ## fight against the gov'ts move towards increasing tuition.

VALENTINES DAY HIGHLIGHTS

Need an ice breaker for a new love connection?
Well, let your message flow through a delicious personalized heart shaped Cookie Gram!

Call Fantasy $y$ Land Cookie Grams 945-0467

Well, it looks like the JANUARY BLAHS ARE OVER. Last Thursday's Pub had comedian Marty Putz entertaining a capacity crowd once again.

February's line-up boasts of more top-notch professional IIIEIS entertainment:

February 4 th - THE $W / A L K$
This Hamilton-based recording band returns to Algoma with their own brand of 90 's Rock. If you missed them last year - don't make that mistake again.

February 11 th $-{ }_{E}^{\top} M / A T I O N(A) S$ are here on their cross-Canada tour. Already very popular at Algoma, this Toronto Blues band returns by very strong demand.

February 18 th

Drop by the "Rat Hole" in Daytona Beach to check out the Band - It's SPRING BREAK!

February 25 th - Back to the grind until April so enjoy once more to take the edge off things.

Coming up in March we have Skeleton Closet (get their tape from Darren Nippers), more Comedy, and of course - The Internationally Acclaimed, World Famous, auc March Madness Talent Show.

Remember the weekend starts Thursday nights in the $T$-Bird Lounge.

Steve Infanti

Cross Country

SKI FOR HEART at the Hiawatha Highlands on February 13, 1993 from 9am - 3pm
for more information contact the Heart & Stroke Foundation at 253-3775

USED BOOK EXCHRNEE

Does it seem like you have been posting up an endless number of posters but your books still haven't sold?

Make up ONE list of the books you have and the price your asking and bring it to the AUSA office. (GN-2) We will contact you if someone is interested. Rasy nougis for Yous?

Looking for a certain textbook and just can't find it! Tired of searching through the mountains of papers stapled to the infinite number of bulletin boards. Well

STOP

Write down all of the relevant information and drop it off at the AUSA Office (GN-2)

If your book is out tbers.... * 11 Exad 1 .
mivir fear the studiats' association is here !

Hapsy Valentinés Day !!

Page 12
DUE TO THE
FISCAL RESTRAINTS NOW IN EFFECT. THE LIGHT AT THE END OF THE TUNNEL WILL BE TURNED OFF UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE

- THE MANAGEMENT

RAGTURL COICEPTS

THINGS YOU THOUGHT YOU KNEW BUT YOU DON 'T!

- did you know that AUC's very own Marianne Perry was Miss Bon Soo in 1974.
- did you know that the George Leach Centre has won an Ontario Design Award for energy efficiency in buildings smaller than 40,000 square feet! It was calculated by Ontario Hydro that the GLC will consume 30\% less energy than similar buildings in Ontario.
- Algoma's total student enrolment for 1992 was 1139.
- Algoma University is trying to phase in a full Forestry program which would be compatible with its Institutional Mission and philosophy.
- Over the next decade there is an expected 34\% enrolment increase at Algoma.
- did you know that your Students' Association Vice-President has finally received his divorce and he is looking for a rich woman to marry. Check next edition of 'The Sentient' as more names will be added to our short list.
- Marcy Dinelle is the new Office Coordinator for the Students' Association. Welcome Marcy!
-1993 is the year of the Rooster! (does this mean that classes will now be starting at dawn?)

Writing an " F : paper is adrnittedly not an easy task, but one can learn to do it by grasp of the principles to use. The thirteen below, if practised at all diligently, should lead any student to that fortune in his writing.

Obscure the ideas:

1. Select a topic that is big enough to let you wander around the main idea without ever being forced to state it precisely. If an assigned topic has been limited for you, take a detour that will allow you to amble a way from it for awhile.

- Pad! Pad! Pad! Do not develop your ideas. Simply restate them in safe, spongy generalizations to avoid the need to find evidence to support what you say. Always point out repetition with $t h e$ phrase, "As previously noted. .". Better y et, repeat word-for word at least one or two of your statements.

3. Disorganize your discussion. For example, if you are using the time order to present your material, keep the reader alert by making a jump from. the past to the present only to spring back into the past preparatory to a leap into the future preceding a return hop into the present just before the finish of the point about the past. Devise comparable strategens to use with such other principles for organizing a discussion as space, contrast, cause-effect, and climax.
4. Begin a new paragraph every sentence or two.
Ey generous use of white space, make the reader aware that he is looking at a page blank of sustained thought.

Like this.

Mangle the sentences:

5. Fill all the areas of your sentences with deadwood. Incidentally, "the area of" will deaden almost any sentence, and it is particularly flat -when displayed prominently at the beginning of a sentence.
6. Using fragments and run-on or comma-spliced sentences. Do not use a main subject with a main ver'b, for the reader will get the complete thought too easily. Just toss him part of the idea at a time as in, "Using fragments.... To gain sentence variety, throw in an occasional run-on sentence, thus the reader will have to read slowly and carefully to get the idea.
7. Your sentence order invert for statements of the least important matters. That will force the reader to be attentive to understand even the simplest points you make.
8. You, in the introduction, body, and conclusion of your paper, to show that you can contrive ornate, graceful sentences, should use involution. Frequent separation of subjects from verbs by insertion of involved phrases and clauses will prove that you know what can be done to a sentence.

Slovenize the diction:

9. Add the popular "-wise" and "-ize" endings to words. Say, "Timewise, it is fastest to go by U.S. $40,{ }^{1}$ rather than simply, "It is fastest to go by U.S. 40." Choose "circularize" in preference to "circulate". Practice will smartenize your style.
10. Use vague words in place of precise ones. From the start, establish a vagueness of tono by saying, "the issue is...". Make the reader be imaginative throughout his reading of your paper.
11. Employ lengthy Latinae Locutions wherever possible. Shun the simplicity of style that comes from apt use of short, old, familiar words, especially those of AngloSaxon origin. Show that you can get the maxinum ( $L_{\text {. }}$ ), not merely the most (A.S.), from every word choice that you make.
12. Inject humor into your writing by using the wrong word occasionally. Write "then" when you mean "than" or "to" when you mean "too". Every reader likes a laugh.
13. Find a "tried and true" phrase to use to clinch the point. It will have a comfortingly folksy sound for the reader. Best of all, since you want to end in a conversational and friendly way, sprinkle your conclusion with clichés. "Put a little frosting on the cake," as the saying goes.

Well, too ensconce this whole business in a nutshell, you, above all, an erudite discourse on nothing in the field of your topic should pen. Thereby gaining the reader's credence in what you say.

Suggestion-wise, one last thing: file-ize this list for handy reference the next time you a paper write.

Joseph C. Pattison
Reprinted from COLLEGE ENGLISH October, 1963, pages 38-39

CUSTOM SCREENPRINTING

PHONE/FAX (705) 945-9272

STUDENT SERVICES
"BEAT THE WINTER BLAHS"
DOWNHILL AND NORDIC SKI DAY

Friday, February 12
Searchmont Ski Hill
Transportation Provided to and from AUC Campus
Cost: TBA

VOLLEYBALL TOURNAMENT
Saturday & Sunday, February 27 & 28 George Leach Centre, Court #1 & #2
Cost: $$ 24.00$ per team
Prizes to be awarded

Forms of Sexval Harassment

- whisting, leering or suggestive comments about women's bodies or appearance
- openly displaying pornography where women studenis will see it pressure to go out with someone you've said 'no' to.
- sexist jokes by professors, administrators, university staff or fellow students grabbing, fondling
sex under the gun of a benefit - a good mark from your T.A. or próessor obscene phone calls
flashing, peeping toms or other aggressive displays of male nudity

The university is an environment that is infested with sexual harassment. 20 to 30 per cent of women are sexually harassed while they are in university.

Off CORFEREREE

Recently, members of the Algoma University Students' Association attended an Ontario Federation of Students / Canadian Federation of Students (OFS/CFS) conference in Toronto. This is the first time that Algoma has attended such a conference. Since Algoma University students (re YOU) have been members of the OFS, the provincial student organization, for quite sometime now, this year's council decided that it was about time we became actively involved. We felt that we could only benefit from what the Federation had to offer us.

The conference took place over two days and consisted of informal discussions, speakers, and workshops. The discussion centered mainly around the provincial government's decision to cut OSAP grants and increase tuition. We also talked about the proposed idea of an income contingency repayment plan.

In the workshops, we learned how to deal with the media and prepare press releases, and discussed lobbying with our members of parliament. Even more important than the above information though was that Algoma has finally made it's connection with one of the most important student organizations in Canada. We also had the chance to meet council members from other universities and colleges (who enthusiastically welcomed Algoma) and had the opportunity to see how they operate.

It was an eye-opening experience. We have accomplished a lot this year, but we concluded that we have some way to go if we want to become comparable to other student associations. And, we think that OFS and CFS can help us get there.

In the last year or so, with construction & renovations taking place, the fire alarm has been ringing occasionally and sometimes repetitively. Although this has been somewhat of a nuisance in the past, we believe that these problems have now been corrected and that the system is functioning as it should. This is just a reminder that if the fire alarm rings, it should be considered as serious. The University is required by law to conduct a minimum of one full-scale fire alarm per year, so try to be prepared.

For your information, the University now has in place an Emergency Response Team. In case of an emergency, there are Floor Captains in every area of the University. The Floor Captains are there to help ensure that the evacuation process runs smoothly. They will be easily identifiable by their bright yellow hard hats.

The procedures you are to follow when you here the fire alarm are very simple. When the alarm rings, you are to calmly evacuate the building using the closest fire exit available to you. Faculty informed students of their proper fire exits at the beginning of the school year. If you missed this, or are not sure of the location of your fire exit, they are posted in hallways throughout the campus on floor plans. Please make a note of these, if you have not already done so.

Also for your information, we conducted a fire drill on January 20th. The drill went very well and all students evacuated in an orderly fashion.

The fire department was surprised that we were able to evacuate the main building as quickly as we did.

The fire department and the Physical Plant Department would like to commend the students for their high level of cooperation. Bill Bell - Plant Department

Just a thought for CSTEC Students...
As most CSTEC students are getting close to graduation, I would like to remind them to keep the effort going: you could be in the Steel Plant reading this on a wall:
"Be alert, we need lerts."

Our pool table is a rats nest! I realize that proper care remains a student responsibility, however, the table does see heavy use. I played a game the other night with three balls missing, no chalk, no rack, no tips on the cues, dirt all over the table. On the first sewer shot the cue ball dropped into the main ball tray effectively ending my game. I thank the students who have destroyed this table for the Paramount Pleasure of Playing.

Stephen Halls, AUC Student

FREE EGGROLL

WITH ANY FOOD PURCHASE OVER $$ 5.00$

MENTAL  YEAR SQUARE

| 747 | 200 | 359 | 184 | 124 | 157 | 118 | 134 |
| :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: |
| 820 | 273 | 432 | 257 | 197 | 230 | 191 | 207 |
| 653 | 106 | 265 | 90 | 30 | 63 | 24 | 40 |
| 640 | 93 | 252 | 77 | 17 | 50 | 11 | 27 |
| 723 | 176 | 335 | 160 | 100 | 133 | 94 | 110 |
| 831 | 284 | 443 | 268 | 208 | 241 | 202 | 218 |
| 723 | 176 | 335 | 160 | 100 | 133 | 94 | 110 |
| 809 | 262 | 421 | 246 | 186 | 219 | 180 | 196 |

Select any number in the square. Circle it.
Cross out any remaining numbers in that row and column.
Repeat until all numbers have been crossed out.
Sum all the circled numbers.
What year is it this year?
Why does it work?

If I Were MAYOR...

1. I'd study the effectiveness of the EDC again and again until they actually did something or all quit out of shame.
2. I'd ask Elvis why he never comes to any of our shopping centres.
3. I'd rescind the language resolution in favour of one that reinstated the death penalty for all press people who called us a city of bigots.
4. I'd put all the people in town that seem to have nothing to do but whine, on a mailing list to each other.
5. I'd explain to the gov't that we have to get our locks fixed for an additional attraction to visitors of the Norgoma Tent.
6. I'd wonder why I haven ${ }^{-t}$ had a real opponent in the last two elections.
7. I'd apply to host the next Olympic Winter Games... so we could get a real hockey arena in town.
8. I'd tell Bob Rae that in order to wake up and smell the coffee, he should remove his nose from Mulroney's butt.
9. I'd give Murphy Brown the keys to the city (not necessarily ours!) for first creating this column in 1987.
10. I WOULD RUN FOR PROVINCIAL POLITICS.
--Steve Infanti, AUC Student of february 14Th, due to STAFF UACATION.

WE WILLTRE-OPENYFOR
REGULARBTHOURS ON MONDAY FEBRUARY 22ND. AT 8:80 AM.

Law of Selective Gravity:
An object will fall so as to do the most damage.

Shaw's Principles:
Build a system that even a fool can use, and only a fool will want to use it.

It's Back  FREE DELIVERY

Min. 2 Regular or Super Subs

Choose from 16 Varieties Regular or Super Size

- Assorted • Ham • Cheese • Turkey • Salami • Spiced Loaf - Roast Beef • Corned Beef • Meatball • Ribs • Pizza
$\cdot$ BLT • Club • Seafood • Tuna • Chicken
FRESH THINKING IS WHAT WE ARE
- 5 Delicious Salads • Hot Soup • Desserts • Soft Drinks • mm 4 等竟 m ak
MR.SUB
Open 10 a.m. 2 atm., Fri. & Sat. 10 atm.- 3 atm.

Call A Location Nearest You

255 Trunk Rd. - 942-2946
245 Second Line W. - 942-3683
41 Great Northern Rd. - 949-9727
(Coupons Not Valid With Delivery)

It is already February and a month of classes have already gone by. We are sorry that he could not get a January issue out to all of you loyal readers, bot he hope this issue hill fulfil your tremendous appetite for The Sentient.

The hey year brought many changes, and The Sentient did not endure without any either. Don't fret, this does not mean that there here any really drastic changes done on this paper (wHether that has good or bad, he don't know yet) but hopefully yod hill find something in this issue interesting, or funny, or neh. . .

You may have not noticed the editorial duties are now being shared between two people and hopefully there will not be any disputes and disagreements as has last year. We would like to express our apologies to John Foreman for any inconveniences that may have occurred during The Sentient's transitional stage in December. The title of the article written by Mr. Foreman has unknowingly altered to 'I'm Concerned'. The original title was to be 'Is There Racism At Algoma?'

Well, that's about it for now. Hope yod enjoy this issue of The Sentient and hill see you in one month's time. Don't party too much over the Study meek (Feb $15-19$ ) because he haft to see all of yod back after.

Ana & Tasha Dymi

P.S. The AUSA's First Annual Christmas Party has a total blowout!! For those of you who here too worried about who has and who hasn't going to be there, the rest of us (about 200 PEOPLE ( HAD A NIGHT TO REMEMBER.

Any articles that you may want to submit must be received by February 22nd. Just drop them off at the AUSA Office GN-2 along with your first and last name and phone number.

Remember : Darts & Laurels will be about Residence at Algoma.
Make your student paper a student paper!!!

THE LAST WORD IS FOR YOU.....

Ana Dyni stalked the T-Bird Lounge on Comedy Night wanting to know...

What did you think of Marty Putz ?!?
Here's what you had to say...

Then we asked Marty what he thought of Algoma University? Here's what he said...

COOL ! The only school where you can SCORE with your best friends mom

