A Prayer, appointed by the House of Bishops, to be used in all Churches in the several Dioceses of this Province, on two or more Sundays previous to the meeting of the PROVINCIAL SYNOD, and also during the Session.

ALMIGHTY and Everlasting God, who, by Thy Holy Spirit, didst preside in the Councils of the blessed Apostles, and hast promised, through Thy Son Jesus Christ, to be with Thy Church to the end of the world: we beseech Thee to be present with the Synod of this Province, (now about to be) assembled in Thy Name. Save (them or us) from all ignorance, error, pride, and prejudice; and of Thy great mercy, vouchsafe so to direct, govern, and sanctify (them or us) in (their or our) important work, by Thy Holy Spirit, that through Thy blessings on (their or our) deliberations, the Gospel of Christ may be faithfully preached and obeyed, and the order and discipline of Thy Church maintained amongst us, to the overthrow of Satan's power, and the final establishment of Thy heavenly kingdom; through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ, our Saviour. AMEN.

JOURNAL
OF THE
ELEVENTH (SPECIAL) SESSION
OF THE
PROVINCIAL SYNOD

HELD IN
MONTREAL, APRIL, 1882.

FIRST DAY.

Thursday, April 27th, 1882.

SERVICE IN THE CATHEDRAL.

The Special Session of the UNITED CHURCH OF ENGLAND AND IRELAND in Canada met, in accordance with the notice given by the METROPOLITAN, on Thursday, 27th April, 1882, in the Synod Hall, Montreal, and proceeded to the Cathedral for Divine Service at 10.30 a.m.

The 189th Hymn (Church Hymnal) was sung as the BISHOPS and CLERICAL and LAY DELEGATES advanced up the Cathedral from the west door.

The Litany was chanted by the Right Rev. the COADJUTOR BISHOP OF FREDERICTON.

The Communion Service was said by the BISHOP OF NOVA SCOTIA. The Epistle was read by the BISHOP OF TORONTO, and the Gospel by the BISHOP OF HURON. The Sermon was preached by the BISHOP OF TORONTO.

The Holy Communion was administered by the BISHOP OF NOVA SCOTIA, assisted by the METROPOLITAN and the BISHOPS OF HURON and TORONTO.

The offertory was devoted to the needs of the Missionary Diocese of Algoma.

RE-ASSEMBLING FOR BUSINESS.

At 2.30 the Synod re-assembled for business in the School House of St. George's Church.

The METROPOLITAN took the chair and, after prayers by the Clerical Secretary, read the following address :—

THE METROPOLITAN'S ADDRESS.

RIGHT REVEREND AND DEAR BRETHREN, REVEREND AND DEAR BRETHREN, DEAR BRETHREN OF THE LAITY,—Agreeably to the terms of section V. of the Eleventh Canon of our Provincial Synod, it has been my duty to summon you to meet for the purpose of nominating and electing a successor to the late esteemed and beloved Bishop of Algoma. Though I was not present, nor a member of the Synod, when the choice fell on my late brother, I shall, I think, be in entire harmony with the feelings of all here present, when I bear my testimony to the fidelity and self-denying earnestness with which he discharged the arduous duties of his office, and to the simplicity and sincerity of his character. In the government of a new See, various and unexpected difficulties are sure to arise; and in his case, these difficulties were of a peculiarly trying nature. The great distances by which the chief points in his diocese are separated from each other, the want of previous organization, the scanty and irregular supply of funds necessary for the gathering together of the members of the Church in buildings set apart for divine worship, the very limited number of clerical helpers, the want of laity accustomed to church-work and church discipline, weighed heavily upon him, and caused him many an hour of uneasy, anxious thought. Added to these sources of weariness, the diocese included a vast number of untutored, helpless souls, precious indeed in the eyes of the merciful Redeemer of us all, but requiring peculiar instruction, and above all, almost unlimited faith and patience. If he publicly and repeatedly proclaimed the necessity of more systematic and liberal support from the Canadian Church at large, he never (as far as I know) complained of the failure of what was manifestly due to the office of a Bishop in the Church of God. He forgot himself, but he could not forget the want of sympathy in the increase and prosperity of his work.

Whether it be that the important duty of making a provision for a great missionary diocese was undertaken somewhat hastily and without systematic arrangement; or whether it was not sufficiently seen and considered, that voluntary subscriptions for a limited number of years are not to be depended on for bearing the weight of so arduous an undertaking, I will not presume to say, as I was not present at the time when the plan was proposed and carried into effect.

It is well for us to call to mind, that when a provision was made for the priesthood of the old Covenant, the building of the Tabernacle and the Temple was left to the enthusiasm of voluntary donors, but the provision by which the system was to be made permanent was, in the wisdom of God, made a charge upon the whole body of Israelites. Acting upon this great principle, the rulers of our ancient English dioceses made permanent provision for the due observance of divine rites and sacraments, both by endowment and by assessment. And it may well be noted by us that in times within our own recollection, when a large body of Christian and earnest men deemed it to be their duty to forsake the communion in which they were born, and to form a religious body entirely separate from it, they at once, without the least delay, with the most intense earnestness, and with the most signal success, set about the formation of a permanent sustentation fund, for the support of their clergy, and the strengthening of their religion.

If we follow neither of such examples, the one dictated by divine authority, and therefore certain to be wisest and best; the other the result of human foresight and experience, and therefore likely to be part of that wisdom which God imparts to thoughtful, sincere and considerate men, whether the object proposed be in all respects according to the mind of the Spirit or no; how can we hope to succeed in our great enterprise by gathering together the flimsy threads of a temporary enthusiasm?

Shall we, then, be so faint-hearted as to abandon this great work? Can we—dare we give a pledge to God and to the Christian Church by the ordination of a Bishop and the foundation of a See which we are now prepared to abandon? Can we look upon those poor Indians, for whom we have provided a sheltering home in the wild, and having gathered a number of them into the fold of Christ by Christian baptism, having strengthened them by confirmation, having made them partakers of the body and blood of Christ with ourselves, shall we now coldly tell them “Depart in peace,” be ye warmed, but not by our fire, be ye filled, but not by our charity? Shall we do this at the moment when the Canadian Church lifts up her head in primitive independence, convokes her Synods, assembles her Bishops, frames her Canons, and assumes all the attributes of a Church which was a missionary institution from the first, and was taught by her great Master to make disciples of all nations, to lay down no distinction of colour or caste, but to go into the wide world in His strength, proclaiming His message, teaching His truth, and, after His example, willing to spend and to be spent, willing to suffer and to die? Shall we haul down the flag emblazoned with the cross of our Master when every diocese throughout the length and breadth of Canada was assisted by the munificent support of her who has proved herself to be no “injusta noverca,” and who only curtails her beneficence that she may see in us sons worthy of her own prowess, Dioceses which may justify to the world the care and labour she has for so long bestowed upon them.

I will only add one more consideration, that the zeal and earnestness of these few faithful clergy in the Diocese of Algoma deserve a better recompense than to be called upon to surrender their trust, abandon the missions in which they have so patiently laboured, and find among other brethren a fostering care which we have neglected to give them.

You will, I trust, dear brethren, pardon these few earnest words, in consideration of the importance of the subject.

In limiting the summons to the requirements of the Canon, I was actuated by a fear that if a number of subjects for discussion were introduced, the interests of Algoma might be lost sight of, and having consulted a high legal authority, I am led to believe that everything necessary to the interests of that Diocese, and the appointment of a Bishop for the See, can be now legitimately considered. More than this I was unwilling to undertake, lest I should be thought to be going beyond the authority given me by the Canon. Less than this I could not do, being bound by the express order of the Canon to summon the present Synod.

I venture, therefore, earnestly to implore you not to abandon this great missionary outpost, not to leave those scattered settlers and those Christian Indians to be cared for by others, or not cared for at all; nor to throw a damper on the missionary zeal of the clergy ordained by our self-denying and beloved brother. Remember the words: "After my departure shall grievous wolves enter in among you." The gospel for to-day contains a sentence remarkably, I might almost say providentially important, "He leaveth the sheep and fleeth and the wolf cometh and scattereth the sheep."

Whatever difficulties may lie in the way, if an earnest, faithful, diligent Bishop be chosen, such pecuniary difficulties can be met. God hath prospered us so far, and will never desert us if we be faithful to Him. Oh! let not the spirit of our dear brother sigh over our want of faith, and say of us: "Demas hath forsaken me."

At the close of his address the METROPOLITAN announced to the Lower House that by the kindness of the authorities of St. George's Church, their place of meeting would be the School-room in which they were then assembled, and appointed the Rev. Dr. SULLIVAN to act as Chairman until a Prolocutor should be appointed.

The METROPOLITAN, followed by the Bishops, then withdrew to the chamber appointed for the use of the Upper House.

It was moved by the Rev. Canon DAVIDSON, seconded by the Rev. Canon BRIGSTOCKE, that a Committee, to be nominated by the Prolocutor, be appointed to draw up a resolution of this Synod expressive of the high sense entertained by the same of the numerous and various labours, freely given by Mr. C. J. Brydges, in behalf of the highest interests of the Church.—Carried.

The CLERICAL SECRETARY handed over the accounts of the Treasurer to the Auditors.

It was moved by the Rev. J. LANGTRY, seconded by the Ven. Archdeacon JONES,

That this House requests a conference with the House of Bishops, in order to consider the financial condition of the Diocese of Algoma, and to determine and guarantee, as far as this Synod is competent to guarantee, the stipend of the Bishop of Algoma.

After some discussion the above was allowed to stand over.

Dr. HEMMING here raised a point of order, calling attention to the rule for appointing a Committee to arrange business for the following day.

The PROLOCUTOR ruled that the 31st Rule of Order provided for a matter apart from and outside the question whether this session could take up other questions than the election of a Bishop of Algoma.

The PROLOCUTOR here announced that there would be a Missionary Meeting in St. George's School House this evening at 8 o'clock, at which the financial condition of the Diocese of Algoma would be considered, and to which the members of the Synod and the public generally were invited.

The PROLOCUTOR named the following gentlemen to prepare a resolution of thanks to Mr. Brydges :—

The Rev. Canon ELLEGOOD.

Mr. W. B. SIMPSON.

“ E. BAYNES REED.

Judge McDONALD.

The Rev. Canon CARMICHAEL

With the Mover and Seconder.

The PROLOCUTOR also named the Rev. G. M. ARMSTRONG as his Deputy.

MESSAGE from THE HOUSE OF BISHOPS.

No. 2.

The PROLOCUTOR read the following message from the House of Bishops :—

The Metropolitan begs to send to the Prolocutor the following Resolutions on the subject of the Diocese of Algoma, which have been passed by the House of Bishops, and requests the concurrence of the Lower House.

JOHN FREDERICTON,
Metropolitan.

Resolved, That this House do not think it expedient to proceed to an election of a Missionary Bishop of Algoma at this Session of the Provincial Synod, but that, instead, the election be postponed to the regular meeting next year, for the following reasons:—

First, that this House are not satisfied that the spirit of the requirements of the Canon of Missionary Bishops has been complied with, as they are not satisfied that adequate provision has been made for the support of a Missionary Bishop of Algoma.

Secondly, that when the late Bishop was elected, the several Dioceses had guaranteed his stipend for a term of five years, while on the present occasion no Diocese, so far as is known to this House, is pledged to contribute to the Bishop's stipend.

Thirdly, that it is expedient to await such action of the several Dioceses at the ensuing Session in June or July next as will secure an adequate stipend for the Missionary Bishop.

Fourthly, that an opportunity is now offered of applying to the S. P. C. K. and S. P. G. for grants towards the endowment of the See of Algoma, and that some organization be adopted at this Session to follow up this work of endowment either wholly or in part.

Fifthly, that the Diocese of Algoma need not be left without Episcopal ministrations during the ensuing year, as arrangements can be made by the Bishops of the neighbouring Dioceses, whereby Confirmations and other Episcopal services may be supplied.

JOHN FREDERICTON,

Chairman.

It was moved by Mr. L. H. DAVIDSON, seconded by Mr. BIRKETT,

That the message from the House of Bishops be referred to a Special Committee of this House, to report to-morrow morning, and that the message be printed and circulated among the members of this House, and that this House do now adjourn till to-morrow morning at the usual hour.

It was moved in amendment by Mr. H. S. SCOTT, seconded by Mr. GEO. MACRAE, Q.C.,

That all the words relating to the appointment of a Committee be struck out.—Carried.

The main motion as amended was then put and carried.

The hour of six o'clock having arrived, the PROLOCUTOR pronounced the Benediction, and the House adjourned till Friday morning at 10 A.M.

Confirmed this 28th April, 1882.

CHARLES HAMILTON,
Prolocutor.

SECOND DAY.

MONTREAL, Friday, April 28th, 1882.

MORNING SESSION.

After Morning Service in St. George's Church, the Lower House assembled at 10 A.M. for business.

Prayers were said by the Prolocutor.

The minutes of the previous day were read, corrected and approved.

The Rev. Canon DAVIDSON presented and read the following report of the Committee appointed to express the sense of the Synod with regard to the services of Mr. Brydges :

Your Committee beg leave to present the following minute relative to the resignation by Mr. C. J. Brydges, of the office of Treasurer, through removal from the Diocese of Montreal and from the Ecclesiastical Province of Canada.

Be it therefore resolved :

That this Synod, in accepting the resignation of the responsible office of Treasurer of the Provincial Synod by Mr. C. J. Brydges, now removed to Winnipeg, desires to place on record its appreciation of the fidelity and accuracy with which he always discharged the important trust committed to his care during a long period of years, and it avails itself of this opportunity to express its admiration of the earnest Christian zeal which has been manifested, and the devotion which has been unsparingly bestowed by him whenever and wherever opportunity offered. It is a matter of congratulation to this Synod that our country is not to lose the talents thus signally and efficiently employed in the Master's work by the late Treasurer, but that his wise fore-cast and comprehensive grasp of Ecclesiastical affairs will doubtless confer important benefits upon the critical and momentous interests of the Church of our Faith and affections in the Great North-West.

It is further resolved that a copy of this Resolution be forwarded to Mr. C. J. Brydges, duly certified by the officers of this House.

(Signed) J. BURROUGHS DAVIDSON,
Chairman.

“ J. ELLEGOOD.

“ F. H. J. BRIGSTOCKE.

“ HERBERT J. McDONALD.

“ E. BAYNES REED.

By permission of the House the orders of the day were suspended to admit of the reading of the report of the Auditors.

Mr. THOS. WHITE, M.P., read the following Report:—

To the Rev. the Prolocutor and the Clerical and Lay Delegates in Provincial Synod assembled:

The Auditors beg to report that they have examined the statement of the late Treasurer, with the vouchers accompanying the same, and find them correct.

The balance to the credit of the Provincial Synod is $134.53.

THOS. WHITE.

CHARLES GARTH.

The Message from the House of Bishops sent down yesterday, printed by the desire of the House, was circulated among the Delegates, and was next taken up.

By permission of the House, the Rev. JOHN LANGTRY withdrew his motion, with reference to the financial condition of Algoma, brought forward previous to the reception of the 2nd Message from the Upper House.

It was moved by Judge McDONALD, seconded by the Rev. Dr. SULLIVAN,

That the Lower House, having considered the Resolutions on the subject of the Diocese of Algoma which have been passed by the House of Bishops, and being unable to concur in the same, respectfully request a conference with the Upper House, and that a Committee be named by the Prolocutor to prepare reasons for non-concurrence.

It was moved in amendment by Mr. Chancellor BETHUNE,

That this House regret that they cannot concur in the Resolutions of the House of Bishops, on the subject of an election of a Bishop of the Missionary Diocese of Algoma, as this House are of opinion that it is the duty of the Synod to proceed to the election of the Bishop during the present Session, which has been specially convened for that purpose, and that it is also expedient so to elect the Bishop, and that a conference be respectfully requested with the House of Bishops.

By permission of the House, Judge McDONALD's motion was withdrawn, and he became the seconder of Mr. STRACHAN BETHUNE's amendment, which thus became a substantive motion.

MESSAGE from THE HOUSE OF BISHOPS.

No. 3.

The METROPOLITAN begs to inform the Prolocutor that the following resolution was passed, that a conference by deputation is requested in reference to the resolution sent to the Lower House yesterday, respecting the vacant Bishopric of Algoma.

JOHN FREDERICTON,
Metropolitan.

It was moved by Archdeacon JONES, seconded by Mr. A. H. CAMPBELL,

That this House accedes to the request of the Upper House that a Conference be held, and that this Conference be, if their Lordships think fit, an open Conference between the House of Bishops and this House as a whole.

The PROLOCUTOR ruled this amendment out of order.

It was moved in amendment to Mr. Bethune's motion by Mr. THOS. WHITE, M.P., seconded by Mr. GEO. MACRAE, Q.C.,

That the words referring to a Conference with the House of Bishops be dropped out, and that as thus amended the resolution be adopted.

A discussion having arisen, the PROLOCUTOR ruled that when a motion is once in the hands of the House, it can not be altered by the mover, except by the unanimous consent of the House.

The PROLOCUTOR also ruled that the amendment of Mr. Thos. White was not in order, because it precluded the submission of any further amendments.

Mr. THOS. WHITE, M.P., then moved in amendment, seconded by Mr. GEORGE MACRAE, Q.C.,

That that portion of Mr. Strachan Bethune's motion referring to a Conference with the House of Bishops be struck out.—Carried.

The main motion of Mr. Bethune as amended was then taken up.

After some discussion, Mr. Bethune's motion was put and carried.

MESSAGE to THE HOUSE OF BISHOPS.

No. 2.

A Message to the above effect was transmitted by the PROLOCUTOR to the House of Bishops.

It was next moved by Mr. L. H. DAVIDSON, seconded by the Rev. Dr. SULLIVAN,

That this House reciprocate the desire of the Upper House for a Conference, but respectfully ask that such Conference be of both Houses rather than by a Committee.

It was moved in amendment by Dr. HEMMING, seconded by the Rev. Dr. ROE,

That the Message sent down by the House of Bishops, with reference to a Conference, be concurred in by this House.—Carried.

The main motion was therefore lost.

The PROLOCUTOR was requested by the House to name the Deputation.

It was ordered by the House that the collection, amounting to $56.25, made at the Morning Service in the Cathedral yesterday morning, should be paid to the Treasurer of the Provincial Synod, in behalf of the Diocese of Algoma.

Upon this question the vote shall be taken without debate, and if decided in the negative, that resolution shall not go upon the minutes, and the subject shall not be brought before the House again during that Session of the Synod.

20: That the Prolocutor be requested to name a Committee of seven members of this House to draft rules for regulating the proceedings at any conference between this House and the Upper House.

A discussion having arisen as to the propriety of considering any subject not directly connected with the special object for which a Special Synod was called,

It was moved by Judge McDONALD, seconded by the Rev. Professor ROE,

That, as this is a special meeting called for a special purpose, there cannot be any business transacted at it, except that mentioned in the notice calling the meeting and business necessarily arising therefrom.—Carried on a division.

Judge Kingsmill's motions therefore stand over till the next regular session of the Provincial Synod.

MESSAGE from THE HOUSE OF BISHOPS.

No. 5.

The Metropolitan begs to send to the Prolocutor the following resolution passed by the House of Bishops, and requests the concurrence of the Lower House.

JOHN FREDERICTON,
Metropolitan.

The Bishops, Clergy and Laity of the Church of England in Canada, in Provincial Synod assembled, desire to place on record their sense of the serious loss sustained by their Missionary Diocese of Algoma, in the lamentable and unexpected death of its first Bishop; and the high value they entertain of his Christian character, his blameless, self-denying life, and arduous, successful labours during his brief Episcopate.

Frederic D. Fauquier was chosen Bishop of Algoma in 1873, after discharging a Pastorate of 28 years in the Parish of West Zorra, in the County of Oxford, in which he proved himself an exemplary, earnest Parish Priest, and at the time of his election held the office of Archdeacon of Brant.

His character was conspicuous for guilelessness, gentle kindness, and a sensitively scrupulous conscientiousness; his life for a devout piety, a holy consistency and a self-forgotten devotion to the calls of duty and to the demands of His Master's service.

As Bishop, he won the affection and confidence of his clergy to such a degree that they deplore his death as the bereavement of a beloved father, a trusted guide and counsellor. With a field of labour of vast dimensions, arduous and difficult; with inadequate support from the Church at large; often cast down with sore discouragement by this lack of friendly countenance and aid, he succeeded, by patient endurance of hardness and continuance in persevering labours, in multiplying Churches and Missions, opening stations in the most distant and newly settled districts, and leaving a staff of 15 Missionaries, supplying with Church services 90 regular congregations, in a territory which contained but 7 Clergy and 9 Church buildings when it was erected into a Diocese.

Under a deeply humbled sense of the mysterious hand of God in thus suddenly depriving this work of its head, this Synod deplore the loss of so faithful and devoted a Missionary, and so honored and successful a Bishop.

A. T. ONTARIO.

ARTHUR TORONTO.

Concurred in by acclamation, the whole House rising.

The discussion on Judge McDonald's motion was then resumed.

It was moved in amendment to Judge McDonald's motion by Mr. STRACHAN BETHUNE, seconded by Mr. H. J. EBERTS,

That all the words after that be left out, and that instead the following be substituted: That copies of the Resolution of the House of Bishops just concurred in by this House and of the Resolution of Concurrence by this House be transmitted to the several Diocesan Synods in this Ecclesiastical Province.—Carried.

It was then moved by the Rev. Canon DUMOULIN, seconded by Mr. Chancellor BETHUNE,

That in view of the acceptance of the office of Bishop of Algoma by the Rev. Dr. Sullivan, and the consequent sacrifice thereby made by him, a committee of this House be appointed to confer with the House of Bishops with the view of increasing the promised stipend to $5000 a year; or $4000 a year, as at present named, together with the Bishop's travelling expenses.—Carried.

That this House petition the House of Bishops to grant them a conference to consider the accompanying resolutions recommending an increase to the sum to be provided for the Bishop of Algoma.—Carried.

The Prolocutor returned at this point and resumed the chair.

By the special request of the Bishop Elect on his return to the Lower House, no action was taken on the motion of the Rev. Canon Dumoulin or on the subsequent motion of Mr. F. W. Thomas; but the House expressed a desire, that the above motions should be inserted in the minutes as a permanent record.
