Devoted to the Interests of the Church in the Diocese of Algoma

THE LOST ENDOWMENTS

THE ABOVE MAP shows very vividly the disaster which has overtaken the Canadian Church in the loss of a number of large endowment funds in the Province of Rupert's Land, through causes which have been made familiar to us by the daily press.

1. The five Dioceses—blacked out—Moosonee, Keewatin, Athabasca, Mackenzie River, Yukon—have lost all their endowments, and also their shares in the Provincial Beneficiary Funds.

2. The Diocese of Rupert's Land—broad black lines—has lost three-fourths of its Episcopal Endowment Fund, its share in the Provincial Beneficiary Funds and also the endowment funds of St. John's College.

3. The other Dioceses—narrow black lines—Brandon, Qu'Appelle, Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, Calgary, Edmonton—have lost their shares in the Provincial Beneficiary Funds.

The Clergy of the Church have undertaken to supply a sum equal to the income of the lost endowments for the next three years, so that the work may not suffer; and an appeal is being made for the restoration of the capital of the lost funds. A canvass for this purpose will be conducted during the second week after Easter (April 23-30). It is hoped that Algoma may be able to do its share in answer to this Dominion-wide appeal.

Full information, in pamphlet form, will be supplied on application to the Rev. Canon Gould, 604 Jarvis Street, Toronto 5.

"CHRISTIANITY IN THE HOME"

TWO YEARS AGO the Bishop delivered a striking course of Lenten sermons in the Pro-Cathedral at Sault Ste. Marie on the subject of Family Religion, which were greatly appreciated by all who heard them. These have now been published by the Morehouse Publishing Company of Milwaukee, in a very attractive form, with the above title.

Starting with the thought that the strength of a nation depends very largely upon the purity and healthiness of its family life, and that character is largely made or marred by home influence, the Bishop shows the vast importance of religion in the modern home; and proceeds to deal with the place which should be occupied by the Father, the Mother, the Children, the Master and Mistress, and the Servants in the family. The thoughts and suggestions are extremely practical, and are the result of a real knowledge of modern difficulties, and a sympathetic understanding of the aims and ambitions of the younger generation. A home whose daily life was influenced by the principles set forth in this book would be a wonderful training ground for the battle of life.

The book is published at $1.00, and may be obtained through the General Board of Religious Education, 604 Jarvis Street, Toronto 5.

In Memoriam

STANLEY MOTTRAM RANKIN, PRIEST

ON WEDNESDAY, the 1st February, the Reverend Stanley Mottram Rankin, B.A., died at Horton Hospital, Banbury, England, in his sixty-seventh year.

Mr. Rankin was a graduate of University College, Durham, and Leeds Clergy School. He was ordained deacon in 1900 by the Bishop of Worcester and priest in the following year by the Bishop of Coventry. He came to Algoma in May, 1906, serving at St. Thomas' Church, Fort William, until February 1910, then becoming Rector of St. Luke's in the same city, where he ministered until May, 1912, when he returned to England. He was Rector of Bradley from 1913-21, serving as Chaplain to the Forces from 1915-19. In 1921 he became Vicar of Farnborough (with Avon Dassett from 1929), a living which he held at the time of his death. His splendid work in Fort William will not soon be forgotten.

PERCY W. P. CALHOUN, PRIEST

ANOTHER former Algoma missionary has been called to higher service in the person of the Rev. Percy W. P. Calhoun, who passed away at his home in London, Ontario, on the 25th January.

Mr. Calhoun was born in 1866, and received his theological training at the London School of Divinity. He was ordained deacon in 1898 and priest in 1900 by the Bishop of Saskatchewan. Coming to Algoma, he served on St. Joseph's Island from 1901-04, at Little Current from 1904-08, and at Thessalon from 1908-11. On leaving Algoma he ministered in the Diocese of Niagara, later moving to the Diocese of Huron. At the time of his retirement in 1921 he was in charge of the Parish of Thamesford and Crumlin.

LUCY LAWRENCE

ON THURSDAY, January 26th, there passed to her rest one of the pioneers of Muskoka, Mrs. Charles Lawrence (nee Lucy Crompton), daughter of the Reverend William Crompton, for so many years the unwearied missionary of the Church in Muskoka.

Mrs. Lawrence came from England in 1874 with her parents. They penetrated into one of the most remote parts of Muskoka, where Mr. Crompton began to clear his land to make a farm. From the first Mr. Crompton gathered his neighbours together for service, and did his best to help his less fortunate brethren. In all these good works Mrs. Lawrence had her share. Mr. Crompton was a man of good education, and Bishop Fauquier accordingly ordained him deacon and priest. He was a great builder of churches, and many of those now in use in Muskoka and Parry Sound Districts owed their erection to his efforts.

In 1878 Lucy Crompton was married to Mr. Charles Lawrence, and took up her residence at a lovely spot on Mary Lake. From that time on she was a regular communicant and attendant at St. Michael's Church, Allensville. On the farm to which she went when she was married she lived until the day of her death at the age of eighty-three. On this same beautiful spot she raised her family. She had a great love of flowers, and in the summer the Altar at Allensville was always bright with the old-fashioned blooms from her garden. She was a great reader of the Bible, and devoted to the Holy Sacrament.

As a girl at St. Alban's, Manchester, she had heard the Cowley Fathers preach when they came for Lenten services. She was so happy when in her closing years it came about that St. Michael's, Allensville, came under their care. Fr. Palmer, S.S.J.E., gave her her last Communion at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Somerset, where she had been taken in her last illness. She was buried from Christ Church, Port Sydney. The service was taken by the Rev. E. F. Pinnington, assisted by Fathers Palmer, Serson and Hawkes. She leaves to mourn her loss her husband, three sons and one daughter.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord,
And let light perpetual shine upon them.

IN THE DESERT A HIGHWAY FOR OUR GOD

"In the Desert a Highway for our God". This is the title and this the theme that runs all through the seventeenth annual report of the Council for Social Service of the Church of England in Canada. It appears in an attractive green cover and is full of appropriate illustrations. Beginning with work for men in the unemployment relief camps, engaged in the building of our highways, following the Council's western relief work when the prairies became a desert, touching on the Church's work for the unemployed, efforts to level the hill of difficulty for British settlers, to overcome the dragons in the path of womanhood and young girls, helping people out of trouble on the way of life, the need of making the road safer, the development of the highways and byways of Christian Social Service through the activity of diocesan councils for social service, cooperation with other road builders in the road of life in Canada and overseas, it concludes with emphasis on the spiritual side of social welfare work, the evangelistic note in social service and the Council's share in the work undertaken by the Joint Committee on the Evangelization of Canadian life.

A copy of this report will be sent free on application to the office of the Council for Social Service, 604 Jarvis St. ,Toronto.

FRED W. COLLOTON,
Treasurer of Synod

AUDITOR'S CERTIFICATE

I have audited the Balance Sheet of the Diocese of Algoma, dated the 31st December, 1932, as attached hereto.

I have obtained all the information and explanations I have required.

The securities in charge of the Treasurer, amounting to $40,308.88, kept in a safety deposit box in the Canadian Bank of Commerce, have been verified and found correct.

The certified statements on file from the Royal Trust Company have been checked, and the books of the Treasurer are in accordance therewith.

In my opinion such Balance Sheet is properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and correct view of the state of the Diocese's affairs, according to the best of my information and the explanations given me, and as shown by the books of the Diocese.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario,
27th February, 1933.

EDGAR T. READ,
Auditor.

KIRKLAND LAKE

THE ANNUAL VESTRY MEETING of St. Peter's Church was held on the 16th January, when encouraging reports of the various activities were given. The Wardens for the year are Messrs. Edward Death and John Essery. Mr. Kenneth Buffin was elected Vestry Clerk. The stipend quota was increased by $100.00 for the year 1933.

Some time ago at a special vestry meeting, a Business and Finance Committee, consisting of the Priest in charge, the Rev. E. G. Dymond, and Messrs. George Doggett, Leslie Worthington and Frank Pearson, was appointed to act as a consultative body in conjunction with the Wardens in all matters relating to the finances, and to undertake the raising of money for special purposes. The main objective at the present time is the extension and refurnishing of the church. The latter will be largely by gifts from the church organizations and memorials from some individual members.

The number of subscribers on the envelope list is larger than last year, and it is expected that before long many more names will be added.

The reports of the W. A. and Young People's Society showed substantial balances. The former is rendering invaluable service in the mission, not only meeting all diocesan obligations but doing missionary work as well.

The Ukranian Society meets frequently in the church hall. Some of these "strangers within our gates" are frequent attendants at the Church services. An effort is being made to secure the services of a Ukranian priest to minister to these people.

ST. GEORGE'S CHURCH, PORT ARTHUR

THE ANNUAL VESTRY MEETING of St. George's Church took place on the 18th January, and was exceptionally well attended in spite of the inclement weather.

The work of the parish during the preceding year was reviewed and proved to be both spiritually and financially the best in the history of St. George's. The Rev. L. I. Greene in his opening remarks paid tribute to the people of the parish for their loyal support and enthusiastic co-operation, and particularly emphasized the wonderful increase in the number of communicants and of attendants at all services.

The reports of the various organizations of the Church revealed the great progress made by each of them during the past year, and as a result of their combined efforts the mortgage on the rectory was very substantially reduced, more than three times as much being paid as in any previous year.

The following are the officers for 1933: Rector's Warden, R. R. Page; People's Warden, A. J. Barrington (unanimously elected for his eighth consecutive term); Vestry Clerk, A. E. Bannister; Sidesmen, A. Walker, H. Guy, A. Britton, R. Dunnill; Envelope Secretary, G. Coles; Auditors, H. Faulkner and G. Coles. The Church Extension Committee were reappointed, consisting of R. Dunnill, Chairman, H. Guy, A. Britton, H. J. Rogers, with the Rector and Wardens ex-officio members.

Votes of thanks were passed to the following for their splendid work during the year,—The Woman's Guild, under the presidency of Mrs. A. J. Barrington; the Girl's Guild, under the superintendence of Mrs. C. Swingler; the Junior Girl's Auxiliary, under the superintendence of Mrs. K. Booth; the A. Y. P. A., under the presidency of Arthur Britton; the Church Council; St. George's Concert Party; the Sunday School, under the superintendence of Mrs. C. Coulter; the Altar Guild, with Mrs. R. Dunnill as President; the Choir, under L. A. Spencer, as Organist and Choirmaster, assisted by Russell Swingler; the Auditors, the Vestry Clerk, and the One-dollar-a-month Club.

As a token of the great esteem felt by the people of St. George's for their Rector, the following resolution was carried with enthusiasm: "That a very hearty vote of thanks be extended to Fr. Greene for his untiring efforts during the past year on behalf of St. George's Church, and especially for his work in England; with the assurance of our utmost confidence in his policies in the future; and we pray that God may abundantly bless his efforts."

During the Rector's absence in England the parish was in charge of the Rev. J. R. Burrows.

ST. STEPHEN'S, PORT ARTHUR

REPORTS showing favourable financial balances and records of marked progress in activities during 1932 were given by representatives of all departments of St. Stephen's Church, Gresley Park, at the annual vestry meeting. The Rev. L. I. Greene presided, and gave an address in which he outlined the growth of varied activities of the congregation for the year.

Expressions of appreciation were extended to Mrs. J. Raynard for her care of the Altar, to Miss S. Horn and H. Horn for their concert, to the Woman's Guild through its President, Mrs. W. Henry, to the Choir through the Choirmaster, H. Heights; to the Sunday School and teachers, Mrs. W. Holmes, Mrs. W. Gavin and Miss Jean Jacobs, and to the newly formed Junior W. A.

Officers appointed and elected were as follows: Rector's Warden, H. W. Potter; People's Warden, W. Basford; Sidesmen, J. Raynard and J. Jacobs; and Auditors, H. Heights and W. Holmes.

BREAKING NEW GROUND

CANON SIMPSON of Coniston writes: "On Wednesday, January 25th, the Conversion of St. Paul, I held Evensong in Annis School, Appleby Township, about four miles south of Markstay. There were 43 persons present. The people have been asking me for some time to hold a service there. The teacher, Mrs. Lawrence Fowler, and her husband sang a duet, and the school children sang an anthem. I was more than pleased at the reception given me.

"On Sunday, January 29th, I celebrated at the school house at Falconbridge Mine. There were 14 present, and I baptized the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lee after the service. The offering was over $6.00. I intend to hold a service there on the third Sunday of each month hereafter at 8 a.m. I am delighted that the people have asked for the services of Mother Church. I am always glad of an opportunity to extend the boundaries of my mission.

"I have also begun Church services at Wanapitei Village in the home of Mr. Oscar Bush."

ST. FRANCIS' MISSION, MINDEMOYA

Mr. R. M. Taylor, our catechist at Mindemoya, writes under date of January 24th: "The work of getting out the stone for the church has been progressing steadily since a week ago yesterday. They took me up to see the operations today. They have already piled an enormous quantity of stone. This is all being done by voluntary work, in charge of a building committee of four, with the Wardens and myself ex-officio. The boys and young men are particularly interested, and think the work is great fun. I keep telling them of St. Francis and the men he gathered around him to build churches, and I really believe they have caught some of his spirit,—but I am afraid they are not treating "Brother Stone" very gently. Others are felling trees, which later will go to the local sawmill to be transformed into roofing and flooring material for doors and windows."

"MOTHERING SUNDAY"

WE HAVE to thank Miss C. Penswick Smith, of Nottingham, England, for a copy of her extremely interesting book entitled "The Revival of Mothering Sunday," describing the beautiful old customs connected with the Fourth Sunday in Lent. The author has laboured very successfully for years past in the revival of the observance of the mid-Lent festival of Church and Home, which has its roots far back in the history of the Mother Church of England. Mothering Sunday is marked by special observances in a number of churches in this Diocese, and we commend Miss Penswick Smith's book to those who wish to know something of its origin, its ideals and its revival throughout the Empire. The book contains an appreciative foreword by the Bishop of Southwell. It is published by the author at two shillings.
