MEMORIAL TO ARCHBISHOP THORNELOE

ON THE FESTIVAL of the Epiphany at the Pro-Cathedral the Bishop dedicated and used for the first time a beautiful set of Communion vessels received from Archdeacon and Mrs. Balfour, in memory of the late Archbishop Thorneloe, for thirty years Bishop of Algoma. These vessels incorporate the Archbishop's pectoral cross and episcopal ring, both set with amethysts; the former being skillfully attached to the chalice and the latter to the paten. They are the work of Messrs. Birks-Ellis-Ryrie, Limited, of Toronto, and bear the following inscription:

TO THE GLORY OF GOD

In Loving Memory of

GEORGE THORNELOE, D.D., D.C.L.

Bishop of Algoma (1897-1927) and Archbishop of the Province
His Episcopal Cross and Ring are thus Preserved by his Family, by the Priests whom he ordained, and by Friends.

The vessels are to be used on special diocesan occasions at the discretion of the Bishop, and at the Pro-Cathedral annually on the Festival of the Epiphany, the anniversary of the Archbishop's consecration.

No more beautiful way of preserving these priceless relics of a long and fruitful episcopate could have been thought of, and sincere thanks are due the Archdeacon and Mrs. Balfour for making this memorial possible.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BY POST

The Sunday School by Post in Algoma has now over 1200 pupils enrolled. The work is in charge of Sister Marion, S.S.J.D., of Toronto, the Cowley Fathers caring for the work in their own missions in Muskoka.

One of the many evidences that the work is well worth while is that three of the girls in sending in their lesson work have stated their wish to serve the Church, two as overseas missionaries and one as a Church Army sister.

The prize winners for last year were: Leonard Rowe of Little Current, Annie Jones of Muskoka Beach, Patricia Catcher of Bigwood, and Mabel Patterson of Plummer.

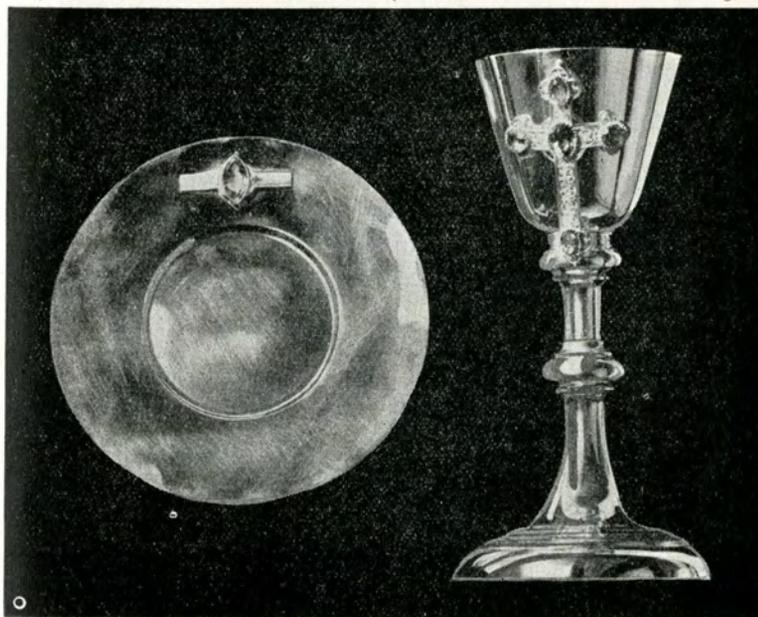

The work is in great need of financial assistance, and contributions will be deeply appreciated. They may be sent to the Diocesan Treasurer, Rev. Canon Colloton, Sault Ste. Marie, Ont.

BORN—At Little Current, on February 10th, to the Reverend Edwin Wrightson and Mrs. Wrightson, a daughter,—Margaret Eleanora Dagmar.

COMMUNION VESSELS
DEDICATED FEAST OF THE EPIPHANY, 1936
IN MEMORY OF ARCHBISHOP THORNELOE

THE KING IS DEAD — LONG LIVE THE KING.

IN COMMON with the whole Empire, the people of Algoma joined in heartfelt mourning on the passing of our late King George V. Through the modern miracle of the radio we had joined in the anxious watch at the bedside of the dying monarch, and when the news came that he had passed peacefully to his rest there was a universal sigh of regret, together with a feeling of thankfulness for his life of service and his splendid leadership of his people during the past troubled quarter of a century.

In the public services of mourning the Church in Algoma played an important part. On Sunday, January 26th, the largest congregations ever known assembled in the Pro-Cathedral, and hundreds had to be turned away from the doors. Ten different military and patriotic groups of the See City, including the Sault Ste. Marie Regiment and the Canadian Legion, attended the services that day in their corporate capacities; while in addition the clergy of the Pro-Cathedral in the afternoon conducted a service for the Sea Cadets at their headquarters. A special form of service had been drawn up and authorized by the Bishop, who preached at the morning service, the Dean being the preacher in the evening. On the day of the late King's funeral a very beautiful Requiem celebration of Holy Communion was held, and again the Pro-Cathedral was thronged. It was the general feeling that this service was the most impressive of all.

In Port Arthur the old parish church of St. John was filled for a Requiem at 10 o'clock. In front of the chancel step was a catafalque with a purple pall, covered with the Union Jack. Four tall standards stood at the corners, with large unbleached candles. The celebrant was the Rector, the Rev. Canon Hincks. At the offertory the choir sang the beautiful and impressive Russian Contakion of the Departed. The public memorial service, organized by the city, was placed in charge of the Rev. L. I. Greene, Rector of St. George's.

At St. Paul's, Fort William, on the day of the burial there was a celebration of Holy Communion with special prayers at ten o'clock and a general memorial service at two. At the latter the church was filled to overflowing, and many were unable to obtain admittance. The choir was assisted by the Fort William City Band, under Mr. F. R. Green, occupying the gallery. The music was particularly beautiful and moving, especially the anthem, "Souls of the Righteous", by the choir, and Chopin's Funeral March by the band. The Rector, Archdeacon Balfour, was assisted by the Rev. S. F. Yeomans, of St. Luke's.

In North Bay the Rev. H. A. Sims, Rector of St. John's, gave the address at a public service. On this occasion of national sorrow people seemed to turn to the Mother Church for a lead. In addition to these, of course, memorial services were held everywhere in our churches, both on the Sunday and on the day of the funeral.

To our new King, Edward VIII, we pledge our loyalty and devotion, and we look forward with hope and confidence to the reign just begun. We feel that His Majesty is no stranger to us. In his various visits to Canada as Prince of Wales he has firmly established himself in the affections of the Canadian people. In Algoma we cherish recollections of his visits in 1919. On the 3rd September in that year the Prince arrived at North Bay, and was given a public reception. On the way west the royal train stopped for a short time at Sudbury, at Massey and at Walford; and all night at the little village of Algoma Mills, where the Prince won all hearts by going among the people and chatting with them, taking an evident interest in the matters which interested them.

On the following day His Royal Highness visited Sault Ste. Marie, remaining there for three hours for a public reception and sightseeing, and a day or so later he received a similar loyal greeting at Port Arthur and Fort William.

On his return from Western Canada the Prince again passed through Algoma, receiving a civic address of welcome at Cobalt and visiting some of the silver mines there on the 16th October. Among those who greeted the royal visitor on this occasion was His Grace Archbishop Thorneloe. On the following day His Royal Highness stopped for a short informal visit at Gravenhurst.

And now he is our King. On Sunday, the 1st March, the congregation at the Pro-Cathedral assembled for the eleven o'clock service heard His Majesty broadcast his first message to the Empire, and were deeply impressed by the simple straightforward words in which he expressed his determination to carry on the great task laid down by his father in the same spirit of service to his people. After hearing these words from the lips of their Sovereign himself, the congregation sang with deep emotion.

“GOD SAVE THE KING!”

ALTERATIONS IN THE PRAYER BOOK

Pursuant to Canon XXVI of the General Synod, His Grace the Primate on the 20th February issued instructions regarding the changes in the prayers for the King and Royal Family in the Prayer Book, necessitated by the death of the late King George V.

The authorized changes are as follows: “That in all prayers for the King, instead of the word ‘George’, the word ‘Edward’, and in the prayers for the Royal Family, instead of the words ‘our Gracious Queen Mary, Edward, Prince of Wales’, the words ‘our gracious Queen Mary, Albert, Duke of York, the Duchess of York,’ be inserted.” These are in conformity with the directions already given in England.

In Memoriam

EVELYN JANE CHAPPEL

The Diocese of Algoma has lost a true friend and devoted helper in the death of Miss Evelyn Chappel, Honorary Central Secretary of the Algoma Association in England, who passed to her rest on Sunday, the 16th February, at her home on Lansdowne Road, Holland Park, London. Miss Chappel had been ill with influenza for some weeks but seemed to be recovering, and her death is a sad and unexpected blow to her sisters and her many friends, for she was greatly beloved.

On Wednesday, the 19th February a Requiem was held at St. Mark's, Marleybone Road, followed by the funeral service at 12.30 p.m., prior to cremation.

Miss Chappel was the sixth daughter of the late Canon Chappel, of Camborne, Cornwall. In 1930, following the death of Miss Green, she undertook to assist her sister, Miss Hilda Chappel, who succeeded to the post of Central Secretary of the Association. Two years afterwards she took over the office herself, ably seconded by her sister; and by her zeal and devotion has earned the gratitude of all who have the interests of Algoma at heart.

A resolution passed by the Executive Committee of the Diocese at its March meeting reads as follows:

"The Executive Committee of the Diocese of Algoma desires to place on record its deep sense of loss in the death of Miss Evelyn Chappel, its high appreciation of her valuable work on behalf of the Diocese, and its sincere sympathy with her sisters and other relations. Miss Chappel undertook, at first in collaboration with her sister, Miss Hilda Chappel, the post of Secretary to the Algoma Association in England in 1930 on the death of Miss Eda Green, who had held that office for 32 years. It was extremely difficult to follow so devoted and earnest a worker as Miss Green, but it soon became evident that Elijah's mantle had fallen upon Elisha, and that Miss Chappel was full of zeal and enthusiasm to help forward the work of the Church of Christ in this Diocese. She has increased the number of branches of the Association, has kept alight the flame of devotion in the older members, has kindled it in the younger ones, and has helped Algoma tremendously during those years which have been, from the financial standpoint, the most difficult in its history.

"We humbly and most sincerely thank God for her devotion to the task which she so willingly undertook, and for her self-denying labours; and we pray that He will abundantly reward her for her labour of love in the day when He shall gather in His jewels."

ANNE LOUISE ELLIS

On Tuesday the 4th February, at her home in Baysville on the beautiful Lake of Bays, Miss Anne Louise Ellis passed to her rest, after a long life of devoted service to her Master and His Church.

Miss Ellis was born in Middlesbrough, England, on the 12th October, 1856, and so was in her eightieth year at the time of her death. She came to Canada when twenty years of age as governess to a family in Simcoe. In the meantime her family had settled on land in McLean Township, between Bracebridge and Baysville. In this district she has lived ever since, for many years in the village of Baysville.

From her girlhood to the end of her life she was an active member of the Church. With her late father she has been known to walk ten miles to Baysville, and did so for a period of three years until her family moved to Baysville, in order that the Sunday School might be built and maintained in that place. They would bring their lunch and eat it on the way in. For many years she was a teacher and superintendent in the Sunday School for which she had laboured so hard in its early days. She also held the office of secretary-treasurer of St. Ambrose Church.

She was a very earnest worker in the Woman's Auxiliary, and has left behind many beautiful things to witness to her handiwork.

Her education fitted her splendidly for welfare work, and old residents say that she never spared herself where there was illness in the community. With her late sister she was instrumental in founding and building up the public library in Baysville.

Although she died on Tuesday, it was impossible to have the funeral until the following Sunday, owing to severe storms and blocked roads. In the morning there was a requiem, and in the afternoon the funeral service was held, in the church she loved so well. The officiant at both services was the Rev. W. R. Tindle, priest in charge. She was laid to rest in the family plot in the old cemetery at Baysville, in sure and certain hope of a glorious resurrection.

LT.-COL. S. C. YOUNG

St. Paul's, Fort William, mourns the loss of one of its most faithful and devoted members in the person of Lt.-Col. S. C. Young, who died on the 4th January.

Col. Young was one of the pioneers of Fort William, and was associated with St. Paul's parish since its inception. He was an early mayor of the city, and had held many important offices, being always highly esteemed by his fellow-citizens. He was deeply interested in Scoutercraft, and indeed in all work among the young. He was buried from St. Paul's, with military honours, on the Feast of the Epiphany, January 6th.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario,
6th March, 1936.

I have audited the Balance Sheet of the Diocese of Algoma dated the 31st December 1935 as attached hereto.

I have obtained all the information and explanations I have required.

The securities in charge of the Treasurer, amounting to $39,672.22, kept in a safety deposit box in the Canadian Bank of Commerce, have been verified and found correct.

The statements on file from the Royal Trust Company, together with the certificates of Messrs. Riddell, Stead, Graham and Hutchison of Toronto, Auditors, verifying the same, have been checked, and the books of the Treasurer are in accordance therewith.

The balance of the H. H. Wills Bequest retained in England, $10,426.30, is represented by securities which, I understand, are in custody of Mr. G. S. Stow, one of the Trustees of the fund.

In my opinion such Balance Sheet is properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and correct view of the state of the affairs of the Diocese, according to the best of my information and the explanations given me, and as shown by the books of the Diocese.

EDGAR T. READ,
Auditor.

It is my conviction, after many years in the mission field, that missionary work is the only gilt-edge security the Church has to offer her people for their money. Costly windows and rich vestments may perish in an hour, but neither fire nor flood nor theft can destroy goodness nor separate from love. The Christian religion is essentially a giving, not a getting. It lives as it grows, and grows as it lives. Neither a prosperous parish nor diocese can exist in a bankrupt Church.— Bishop Jenkins of Nevada.

The Bishop and Mrs. Rocksborough Smith spent a short vacation in New York early in February, where the Bishop had been invited by the Trustees of the Church of St. Mary the Virgin to pontificate and preach on the Festival of the Purification, as he has done on some former occasions. He also celebrated at the annual service for the acolytes of New York and vicinity, when 335 acolytes were present in their robes, in addition to a large congregation.

On the invitation of Bishop Manning His Lordship also took part in the procession at the very impressive memorial service for the late King George, held in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine in the afternoon of Sunday the 2nd February; and also preached at the Cathedral at Evensong the following Sunday.

PARISH MAGAZINES

We have received the first issues of "The Church Magazine" a monthly paper devoted to the work of the three parishes in Fort William. The moving spirit in this new venture is Archdeacon Balfour, Rector of St. Paul's, who founded a similar publication, "Church Bells" in Sault Ste. Marie fourteen years ago, which is still flourishing and a great help to the cause of the Church in the See City. We wish the "Church Magazine" a long and prosperous career.

The Rev. A. E. Carding has also started a parish magazine for the Church of St. John, Schreiber. This is not printed, but is very attractively produced in typewritten form by a duplicating process, adorned with illustrations. That Schreiber is a very live parish is indicated by the fact that it has quite a number of subscribers to the "Algoma Missionary News", and our good wishes are extended to the new venture.

In an article in the current "York Quarterly Review" on "The Meaning of a Diocese", the Archbishop of York explains what is meant by saying that the diocese is not a federation of parishes, but the parish is a subdivision of the diocese. The spiritual fellowship which the diocese provides is really wider than that of those for whom it is possible to meet and hold conversation, richer than that of people who all share the same outlook. Only in the diocese — the Christian family gathered round the Bishop as the "Father in God" — is the Church's system fully complete.

PHOTOGRAPHS WANTED

The Diocesan Secretary-Treasurer is anxious to secure for the historical records of the Diocese photos of the various Triennial Councils (which preceded the formation of the Synod in 1906), and of the Synods held since that date.

We have photos of three of the Council meetings,—the second (1889), the third (1892) and the sixth (1901)—and of the following Synods: the first (1906), the seventh (1923), and the ninth, tenth and eleventh (1929-32-35).

We should be glad to secure photos (if there were any) of the following Triennial Councils:

The first, (Parry Sound), 1887.

The fourth, (Sault Ste. Marie), 1895.

The fifth, (North Bay), 1898.

The seventh, (Sault Ste. Marie), 1904;
and of the following Synods, all held at the Sault:

The second (1909)

The third (1911)

The fourth (1914)

The fifth (1917)

The sixth (1920)

The eighth (1926)

If any reader has any one or more of these, and would care to donate them to the Synod Office for preservation, we should be very grateful. Please address, Rev. Canon Colloton, Sault Ste. Marie, Ont.

NATIONAL LAYMEN'S COUNCIL

THE National Laymen's Council inaugurated for Algoma by a great meeting of men at St. John's, Sault Ste. Marie at the time of the Synod in June last, is beginning to get to work. We have received news of local branches at the Pro-Cathedral and at Fort William. At the former, under the chairmanship of Col. S. L. Penhorwood, the men successfully carried through a campaign for the lifting of a parish debt, and are now engaged in an Every-Member Canvass. At Fort William a largely attended meeting for men was held in St. Paul's parish hall on Sunday afternoon, January 19th. Splendid addresses were given by Mr. D. W. LeNeveu, of Winnipeg, and Mr. Chancellor Babe, K.C. It is hoped that as a result of this meeting an active branch will be formed in Fort William. We shall be glad to hear of similar activities in other places.

At the recent January civic elections in Fort William, Archdeacon Balfour was elected as a Trustee of the Board of Education. We congratulate the Archdeacon on his success at the polls, and also on this opportunity of serving his fellow-citizens.

The Algoma Missionary News

THE ALGOMA MISSIONARY NEWS is the official organ of the Diocese of Algoma. It is published for the Diocese by the Cliffe Printing Co., Limited, 122 Spring Street, Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario.

THE ALGOMA MISSIONARY NEWS is published bi-monthly. The price for single copies is 10c. The subscription price is 50 cents per annum.

All subscriptions, items of news and other communications should be sent to the Editor.
