MR. MORROW, RUFUS JACOBS, HAROLD ALTIMAN, GEORGE NAWAGZIC, CECIL THOMAS.

FRONT: LOUISE BENEDICT.
