Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you. For everyone who asks receives, and everyone who searches finds, and for everyone who knocks, the door will be opened. Matthew 7:7-8

Blessing:

God grant to the living, grace;
 To the departed, rest;
 To all the world, peace and concord;
 And to us and every faithful servant,
 Life everlasting;
 And the blessing of God almighty,
 Father, Son and Holy Spirit,
 Be with you and remain with you forever, Amen.

Choral Prelude:

Surely the presence of the Lord is in this place;
 I can feel his mighty power and his grace.
 I can hear the brush of angel wings
 I see glory on each face -
 Surely the presence of the Lord is in this place.

WelcomeHymn: Amazing Grace

Amazing grace, how sweet the sound,
 That saved a wretch like me!
 I once was lost, but now am found,
 Was blind, but now I see.

Salutation: In the name of God: Creator, Redeemer and Giver of life. Amen.

Prayers of the People:

Whenever and wherever we meet as Christians, God our creator is there. That our hearts may be stirred up in thanksgiving for the life God has given us, let us pray, saying: Hear our prayer.

For the gifts of creation, for the sun that lights our day, and the moon and stars that shelter our night. May our eyes be open to the beauty around us, the subtle changes in the sky, the delicate coating of soil from which breaks forth our food and flowers, and on which our animals make their homes; the trees from which we build our homes and which the birds make their nests. Help us to protect and nurture the creation around us and ever proclaim the wonders of your world. Lord, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

For the church in every place: may we be ever mindful of the richness of the church family including the person next to us today, and those next to us every Sunday. As we remember the ecumenical church of every race, nation, and economic circumstance, let us give thanks for our ministry together in God's world. Lord, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

For all families: May the elders be shown respect, and may the children have adequate food, shelter, and the opportunity to learn and grow. May our youth continue to search for their identity, and find God's wisdom. May our homes be places of understanding and mutual support which bind us all together in Christ's love. Lord, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

For those at greatest risk among us, and among those we care for at home: Let us pray for the lonely and rejected, for the oppressed, for the sick and for those who struggle to regain their strength. We pray for those among us with the longest memories to link us to the past, and for the new born, in whose baptism and our baptism is renewed for service in God's world. Lord, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

Set your troubled hearts at rest.
Trust in God always; trust also in me.

John 14:1

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life.

John 3:16

God our Comforter,
You are a refuge and a strength for us,
a helper close at hand in times of distress.
Help us so to hear the words of our faith that our fear is dispelled,
our loneliness eased, and our hope reawakened.
May your Holy Spirit lift us above our natural sorrow to the peace and light of your constant love
Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

First Reading:

Response: The Word of the Lord
Thanks be to God.

Psalm: (in unison):

How wonderful, O Lord, are the works of your hands!
The heavens declare your glory.
The arch of sky displays your handiwork.
In your love you have given us the power to behold the beauty of your world robed in all its splendor.
The sun and the stars, the valleys and hills,
the rivers and lakes all disclose your presence.
The roaring breakers of the sea
 tell of your awesome might,
The beasts of the field and the birds of the air bespeak your wondrous will.
The voices of loved ones reveal to us that you are in our midst.
A divine voice sings through all creation.

Second Reading:

Remembrance and Thanksgiving

Hymn: The Church's one foundation is Jesus Christ her Lord;
 She is his new creation by water and the Word:
 From heaven he came and sought her,
 And for her life he died.

 Elect from every nation, yet one o'er all the earth,
 The charter of salvation.
 One Lord, one faith, one birth,
 one Holy name she blesses, partakes one holy food,
 and to hope she presses with every grace endued.

 Yet she on earth hath union with God the Three in One,
 and mystic sweet communion with those whose rest is won:
 O happy ones and holy! Lord, give us grace that we,
 like them, the meek and lowly,
 on high may dwell with thee.

Hymn: Nearer, my God, to thee, nearer to thee;
 E'en though it be a cross that raiseth me;
 still all my song shall be,
 Nearer, my God, to thee, (x2) Nearer to thee
 There let the way appear, Steps unto heaven;
 all that thou sendest me in mercy given;
 angels beckon me
 Nearer, my God, to thee, (x2) Nearer to thee.
 Or if on joyful wing cleaving the sky,
 sun, moon, and stars forgot, upwards I fly,
 still all my song shall be
 Nearer, my God, to thee (x2) Nearer to thee.

Grace to you and peace from God our Creator,
The love at our beginning without end,
In our midst and with us.

God is with us, here we find a new life.

Hymn: How Great Thou Art

O Lord my God, when I in awesome wonder
Consider all the works by hand has made,
I see the stars, I hear the mighty thunder,
Thy power throughout the universe displayed.

*Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee,
How great thou art! How great thou art!
Thy power throughout the universe displayed,
How great thou art! How great thou art!*

When through the woods and forest glades I wander,
I hear the birds sing wetly in the trees;
When I look down from lofty mountain grandeur and hear the brook and feel the gently breeze (ref)

When Christ shall come with shout of acclaim and take me
Home, what joy shall fill my heart!
Then I shall bow in humble adoration
And there proclaim, "My God, how great thou art!" (ref)

We have come together today to remember before our Creator
The lives of all those who have gone before;
We commend them to God's keeping.
We would also hope to comfort those who mourn
With our sympathy and with our love,
And with the hope we share
Through the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

Hear the strengthening words of Jesus Christ Our Saviour:
I am the resurrection and the life; even in death, anyone who believes in me will live.

John 11:25

For the departed: We remember those who have gone before us, who have stood by us and helped us, who have cheered us by their sympathy, and strengthened us by their example.
We pray for those we love but see no longer. Grant them our peace; let light perpetually shine upon them; and in your living wisdom and almighty power, work in them the good purpose of your perfect will.
This we pray through Jesus Christ our Lord, who taught us to pray:

Our Father who art in heaven...

Hymn:

What a friend we have in Jesus
All our sins and griefs to bear!
What a privilege to carry
Everything to God in prayer.
O what peace we often forfeit,
O what needless pain we bear,
All because we do not carry
Everything to God in Prayer.

Have we trials and temptations?
Is there trouble everywhere?
We should never be discouraged;
Take it to the Lord in prayer.
Can we find a friend so faithful,
Who will all our sorrows share?
Jesus knows our every weakness;
Take it to the Lord in prayer.

Are we weak and heavy-laden,
Cumbered with a load of care?
Precious Saviour, still our refuge –
take it to the Lord in prayer.
Do thy friends despise, forsake thee?
Take it to the Lord in prayer;
in his arms he'll take and shield thee;
thou wilt find a solace there.
