TEACHERS mould the nation's future, because on our shoulders rests much of the responsibility for the thinking and doing of "our" future citizens.

Teaching I believe is the basic profession of all professions and unless our house is built on the "ROCK" it will perish.

Good teachers love children and have their interests at heart. In our schools many pupils come from broken homes, and we teachers must meet them with "understanding." Are we going to assist these children in becoming adjusted, happy, and useful citizens of the country. WE HAVE TO! For this we must have CHRIST's love for each urchin. Do I have it?... Do you have it?... If we have it, there will be success.

Effective work can be produced only if we are effective teachers. "EFFECT" on children comes from practical Christianity; so we teachers should be "apostles."

What about our lay teachers?... Have they their head and shoulders over other persons in the parish or mission? I do not refer to physical stature. Do they attend Mass every Sunday? Are they alert to sermons.... receiving Holy Communion often? Do they hear the Benediction bell in the afternoon? Do they read catholic papers?..... etc..... What motives led them to a classroom in the North? SALARY?... Failure! ADVENTURE?... failure!...

TEACHERS, you should have come to be a light, to enlighten the minds... to be a missionary to "warm" up the heart of every child confided to your care. A well-taught catechism lesson will develop their will power, will show them to follow CHRIST in school, at home on the playground and later in the parish and with the community. If one day there seem to be an "eclipse of Success" our guiding thought should be:

"WE MUST CONTINUE TO SCATTER THE SEEDS DESPITE APPARENT FAILURE AND LEAVE THE RESULTS TO GOD."

DEAR PARISHIONERS,

Lent is here .It provides us with good excuse to withdraw ourselves from amusements and useless distractions. It implies reflection, meditation and prayer. This is possible only when souls are aloof from the ordinary ways of men, tranquil and undistracted.

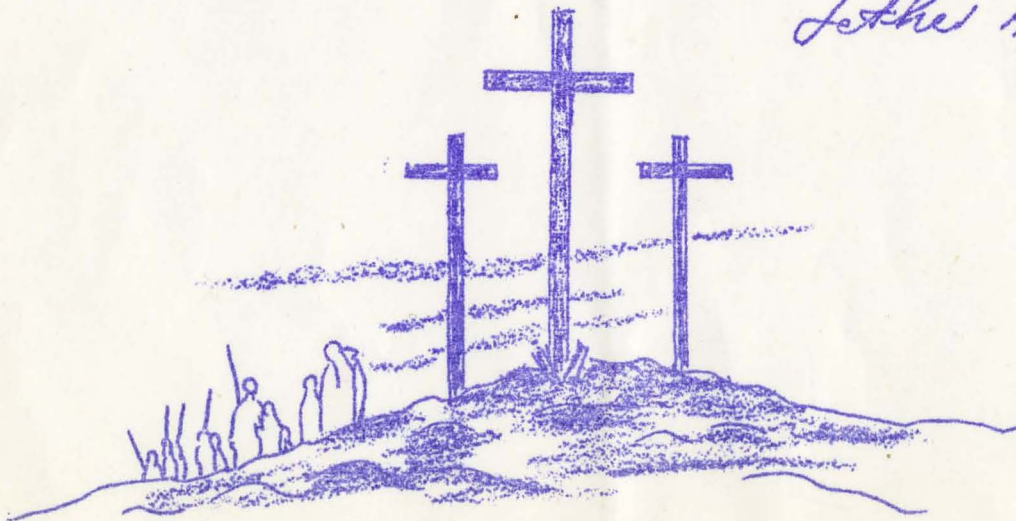

This is the time to meditate on the Passion of Our Blessed Lord. Each and every scene of that tragic night and day, deserves to be recalled by all who profess to be disciples of Jesus-Christ. To every saint the Passion has been the subject of devotion, and so it should be to us all. Lent both reminds us of this obligation and provides us with opportunity for its fulfillment.

Among the exercises devised by the followers of Christ is the devout practice known as the Way of the Cross, or the Stations. It is the practice of making a spiritual pilgrimage in company with the suffering Christ. Thus we do not need to cross seas and lands to visit the Holy Places made sacred by the shedding of our Savior's Blood.

Another characteristics of the season of Lent is the fast. It was the Apostles themselves who instituted the custom of fasting during the weeks preceding Easter. The Church has always observed the Lent which we now observe more or less. For the origin of the lenten fast, we go back to the Gospel. Our Lord fasted and prayed for forty days and nights. Imitating Him, His followers, year by year, and generation after generation, have devoted the same period of time to communion with God, to bodily penance and meditation.

The institution of the season of lent is the chief means by which the Church helps us to better understand the meaning of suffering. We must not forget that sin is an ever present evil of which suffering is the antidote.

Let us not forget that we have all been saved from death, from eternal death by the Passion of our Lord and Savior.

MERCY OF GOD WE TRUST IN THEE!?

Revelation of the Mercy of God to Sister Faustina.

Sister Faustina was born in Poland. She entered the Congregation of the Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy, commonly known as the Magdalen Sisters, who devote themselves to the education and training of girls impoverished morally and financially. She died Oct. 1938.

I will not write about the privileged experiences Sister Faustina had, as they were a preparation for her great calling in life: to announce to the world THE DEVOTION TO THE MERCY OF GOD in its new form.

Mankind, especially during the last century, has continually strayed farther from GOD, from CHRIST, and from His CHURCH. Consequently, despite the great progress in civilization, the world finds itself shattered and unhappy. During the same century, the Blessed Virgin walked on earth..in La Salette, Lourdes, in Fatima, to exhort mankind to penance. Our Mother warned "that great calamities shall befall faithless and sinful humanity!" Our LORD Himself appeared to Sister Faustina, and said to His confidant: MANKIND WILL FIND NO PEACE UNTIL IT TURNS WITH CONFIDENCE TO MY MERCY!"

Sister Faustina received the first apparition of the Merciful CHRIST in 1931. She describes it thus: "I was in my cell, when I saw Jesus dressed in a white garment. He held one hand raised in blessing and with the other He was touching the garment at the breast. From under the garment came two rays of light, one red the other pale. Jesus said to me: Paint a picture according to the vision you see and with the inscription: JESUS I TRUST IN THEE!..I desire that the picture be venerated throughout the world."

PROMISES OF OUR LORD: I PROMISE THAT THE SOUL WHICH SHALL VENERATE THIS PICTURE WILL NOT PERISH. I FURTHER PROMISE THAT SOUL, VICTORY OVER ITS ENEMIES ALREADY HERE ON EARTH AND ESPECIALLY AT THE HOUR OF DEATH. I MYSELF SHALL DEFEND THAT SOUL AS MY OWN GLORY. I AM GIVING TO PEOPLE a vessel, WITH WHICH THEY SHOULD COME TO FETCH GRACES FROM THE FONT OF MERCY. THAT VESSEL IS THIS PICTURE WITH THE SUBSCRIPTION: "JESUS I TRUST IN THEE!.. I DESIRE :that the first Sunday after Easter be celebrated as a feast of MERCY. ANYONE WHO APPROCHES ON THIS DAY THE SOURCE OF LIFE WILL OBTAIN COMPLETE REMISSION OF PUNISHMENT AND SIN. MANKIND WILL NOT FIND PEACE UNLESS IT TURNS WITH CONFIDENCE TO MY MERCY. BEFORE I COME AS A JUST JUDGE I WILL REVEAL MYSELF AS THE KING OF MERCY SO THAT NO ONE WILL BE ABLE TO EXCUSE HIMSELF ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT, WHICH IS SLOWLY APPROACHING."

The apparition of our Lord, the King of Mercy, repeated itself several times. Our Savior evidently wanted to have it indelibly impressed upon the soul of Sister Faustina.

Meaning of the two rays: CHRIST told her that the rays represent the blood and the water that gushed forth from the depth of His Mercy when His agonizing Heart was opened on the cross. CHRIST instructed the nun to write down this short ejaculation: "O BLOOD AND WATER WHICH HAS GUSHED FORTH FROM THE HEART OF JESUS AS A FONT OF MERCY FOR US, I TRUST IN THEE."

The Saviour warmly exhorts people to hasten to His Mercy before HIS justice prevails: "Write, before I come as the just one, I first open wide the gates of my Mercy. He who does not want to pass through the gates of mercy, will have to pass through the gates of justice." "I prolong the time of my Mercy, but woe to him who does not recognize the time of MY VISITATION."

He tells Sister Faustina: "I desire that the first Sunday after Easter be celebrated as the FEAST OF MERCY." "The soul that will go to confession and communion (on that day) will obtain a complete remission of sin and punishment."

The CHAPLET, or corona, to the ^Mercy of God was given to Sister Faustina by CHRIST.

AMONG MARY'S GIFTS.

We are living in a happy century: the "AGE of MARY!" Never has the Mother of God been closer to the earth! SHE is walking on our planet!

However there is a dark side to the picture today, the darkness of the beast. He prowls to trample and destroy. Never has he been so apparent. HIS TIME IS GROWING SHORT. No one knows better than he. He has never forgotten the prophecy in the garden: "I will put enmities between thee and the woman.... SHE shall crush thy head." He realizes well what the coming of Mary means to him and his empire. God alone knows the furious activity of hell, the rage with which it strives to make this world a madhouse of hate. How he must hate the tender Virgin as SHE journeys from country to country. TODAY THE MOTHER OF GOD IS SITTING AT THE BEDSIDE OF A SICK WORLD.

For years the devil has succeeded in hiding the beautiful devotion of Her Immaculate Heart in the green scapular. I am sure that most of you have heard of this matchless devotion only lately. Yet the good Sister to whom it was revealed died over forty years ago. This is not surprising. See how well the evil spirit hid the marvels of Fatima although Our Lady's power flamed in the heavens before fifty thousand men and women.

I MUST INSIST THAT THE PECULIAR POWER OF THIS SCAPULAR IS THAT OF CONVERSION. TO BRING HER SON INTO THE HEARTS OF MEN. There were many physical cures, but I repeat HER GREATEST DESIRE IS TO GIVE HER SON BIRTH IN THE CRADLE OF YOUR SOUL.

The GREEN SCAPULAR is the story of Sister Justine Bisqueyburu, a Daughter of Charity of Saint Vincent de Paul in Paris. On November 27, 1839 Justine entered the Noviciate. During her first retreat she was favored with a celestial vision. Our Lady appeared to her, clothed in a long white robe over which hung a bright blue mantle. In Her hands SHE held Her heart, from the top of which issued brilliant rays. SHE had a dazzling celestial beauty! In the other apparitions SHE had a GREEN SCAPULAR in Her left hand and Her heart in the right one. This Heart was pierced with the sword and surmounted by a cross. An oval inscription read: "IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY PRAY FOR US NOW AND AT THE HOUR OF OUR DEATH." The Sister understood that this scapular had to be distributed immediately with confidence.

For various reasons the execution was long delayed, and in consequence the Blessed Virgin complained to the sister in 1846.

Pope Pius IX approved the distribution of the SCAPULAR in 1863.

A STORY

One afternoon, while the slender tapering minarets of the mosque glittered in the afternoon sun, Hassen entered the Sublime Gate in triumph with rich spoils and many slaves from the Upper Danube. Trumpets, drums and bells sounded his arrival!

Out of the parade of slaves the Sultan chose Walter a blue-eyed boy to be one of his pages and sent Mary his sister to one of his sultanas.

Mahemet IV is the sultan of Turkey and is recognised as a god by his people. His Grand Vizier, next in power, rules the kingdom as he pleases. Hassen is the most prominent member of the body-guard of the cruel ruler. The koran is the sacred book, and the harsh sultan obliges those driven into slavery to accept Islamism, or be tortured.

Walter received the costume of a page which consisted of a yellow pair of trousers, a neck ornament and a red turban with a tassel. He became the staff-bearer of Mehemet but showed himself a true christian by refusing to take Islamism. His other two christian companions George and Janos pretended to accept Islamism so as to have a chance to go back home with the next raid. Walter grieves over them, and prays fervently to God to remain faithful to the promises of his baptism.

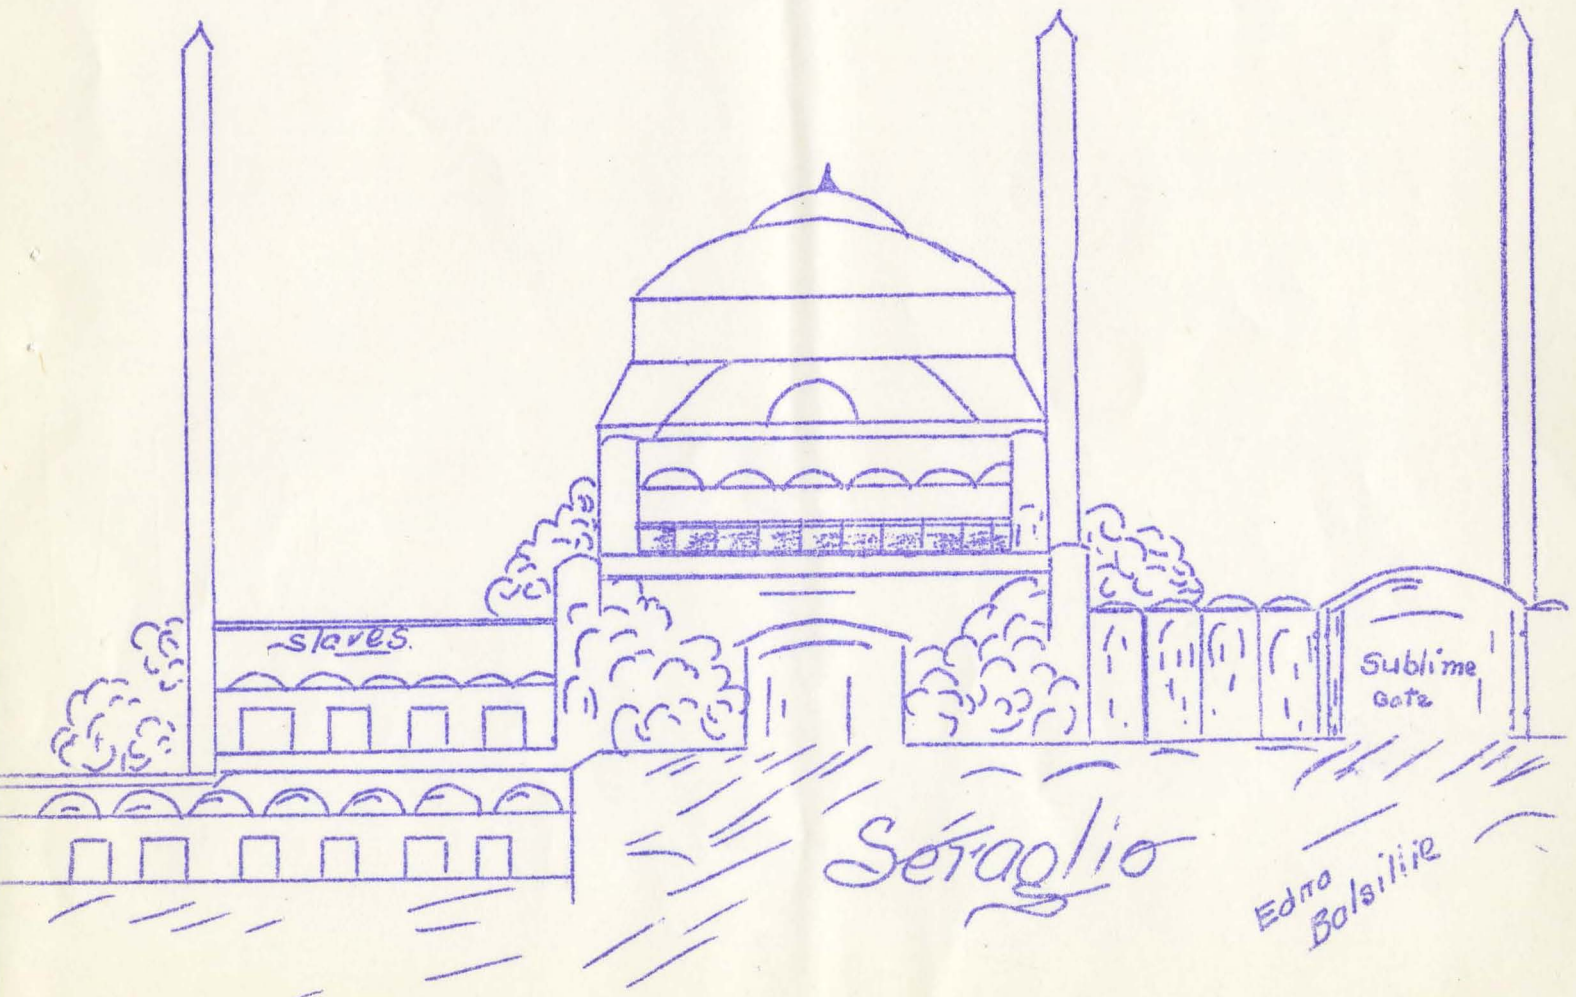

Mary, Walter's sister is a slave to sultana Fatima. She is dressed in very beautiful silks. At rest time, she fans the sultana with peacock feathers. She is taught how to dance, sing and play the lute. One day Mary sang a hymn to the Blessed Virgin when the sultan asked her to sing. As she had a very beautiful voice, she was offered any favor that she would like to have. For sure! the sultan did not know she was singing to MARY! She pleaded to go and see her brother. Mary was allowed to be brought every Friday to an arbor, where there were beautiful flowers of many different kinds. This was the place where she met Walter. They were really happy to see one another again! They talked about home and of how they would escape.

One day, Walter was disgraced by the sultan because he proclaimed highly that he would never deny CHRIST. The teacher had been called to give the progress of Walter at the koran school. He said that Walter was always there on time, but he never listened to the teaching and often passed remarks.

The sultan called for Walter, and he promised the boy, that he would be as a king, as rich and powerful as was Joseph in Egypt, if he would but deny his faith and become a moslem. Walter proclaimed that he would never deny CHRIST, whatever would befall on him! The sultan punished Walter severely; he received on the soles, twenty-five lashes and was thrown on the hay of a stable.

The interpreter of the sultan, Aschmet, through remorse of having renounced his Faith, wants to pacify his conscience, by delivering Walter from the Turks. On his way home after he had seen the boy, so good and energetic, an inner voice spoke deeply to his heart!

There were two boats that had come from Venice. Two monks were aboard coming to buy some slaves taken in the last raid. Aschmet went to the priests and told them about Walter and Mary. The monks said they would see the overseer at the Sublime Gate the next morning. They arrived early; the overseer set the price of the ransom plus a bag of gold for him if they wanted his help to get the christian slaves out of the hands of the sultan. The monks paid a visit to Walter who had been so badly whipped that he could not walk not even stand on his feet. There they learned from Aschmet that the sultan refused the liberty to Walter and his sister. He wanted the boy to become the general of his armies.

Janos and George had been punished, surely because they had become moslems. They were practicing how to ride a horse with the overseer, when all at once the mufti called them. It looked as if some kind of a test had to be passed in front of the sultan. They were asked if they were ready to take Islamism; on their positive answer, they were asked to recite the first suran of the sacred book. They stuttered and did not know it and were badly whipped. In the evening, they met the old Conrad, a crippled christian slave; they told him they wanted to see Walter. The ugly dwarf told them to meet him at eight o'clock and he would go with them to see their friend; George refused.

In a last meeting Father Joseph, the youngest monk, offered himself in hostage for Walter because his companion had not enough money since $15,000 were required to ransom the christian slaves. At the last minute the sultan stubbornly refused to free Walter and Mary.

Conrad had a special talent: that of telling christian stories to Sultana Fatima, who said if she had the chance she would prove that she could be as brave, courageous and sympathetic as the christians were. In his last story, Conrad related the story of Walter and Mary and how they were treacherously torn away from their parents. Sultana Fatima was kindhearted, so she secretly arranged a way to free the brother and sister without having to pay a ransom. Addulla her servant, who was keeping Walter locked up in his cell, took him to a canoe, in a basket. Then the servant rowed to the Santa Maria, and lifted his load into the boat where the two monks were waiting for their coming. To Walter's astonishment, Mary and Conrad were taken out of another basket. Then came Janos and Aschmet from their hiding place as soon as the boat moved away from the shore. Both asked the monks to help them enter in their Catholic Church they had forsaken.

The trip was very happy and full of thanksgiving to God. They all arrived home safely, and Conrad lived at Walter's home.

A young mother finally tucked her small son into bed after an unusually trying day. That's when she sighed, "Well, I've certainly worked from son-up to son-down!

Speaking of horrible examples, a twelve-year-old we know, says his arithmetic book is full of them.

JESUS' FIRST VISIT TO THE TEMPLE

For the first time, Mary and Joseph happily brought the Child Jesus to the temple, His Own House, to be offered to His Father. Then a sacrifice would be offered consisting of two downy turtle doves!

What happened then??..... Simeon, a holy man, living in the temple, proclaimed Jesus the MESSIAH!.. A holy woman, named Anna, recognized the Infant Child Jesus as her SAVIOUR, and she told the young Mother that a sword of sorrow would pierce Her heart. We know this prophecy was fulfilled on Calvary.

O dear tender Virgin Mother! do pray for us, so that we shall never grieve Jesus. Will this resolution atone a little for the sorrow you went through when CHRIST died on the cross for us?

On this day the Church blesses candles, the symbol of Our Lord: "HE IS THE LIGHT!

DO YOU HAVE A CANDLE IN YOUR HOME????
A candle that has been blessed????

2 Our first meeting of the Children of Mary was held on the 2nd of February. All the members were present. We opened the meeting first, by saying a prayer to the Blessed Lady, the followed a few suggestions. We do not have the rule books in right now, but we hope to have them soon. The meeting closed with a short prayer to our dear heavenly Mother to whom we confide our hopes and future.

Say pals, I am sure you all know that on this day old Mr Ground Hog is supposed to come out of his winter quarters and decide whether Spring is going to arrive early or not. Well I forgot to ask about his decision, so let's wait until Spring talk to us.

The Dwarfs

There was once some dwarfs who never went to a feast.

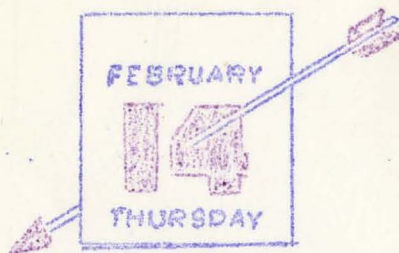

One day there was a feast in heaven and the dwarfs wanted to go to the feast. They got up early in the morning and started to make a ladder. They got all the ladders they could find in the country.

It was almost noon when they finished making the ladder, they put the ladder up till the ladder reached the sky then the first one said! "Let's see who is the bravest one" Nobody wanted to go first, so he said I'll go first.

He went up first and the rest followed him. Just as they nearly reached heaven. They fell down Down came all the dwarfs, and the ladder fell over them. They died and went to heaven, and were there just on time for the feast.

The Members of the Red Cross held a Valentine Party at the Federal Day School. The Guides and Scouts were invited by the Red Cross. Reverend Fathers Marrec and Breault were guests of honor. Mrs Sallans, Miss Walker and Miss Boyle read the Valentine Cards!! Did we laugh! I still have the echo in my ears! A food committee served a delicious lunch. We all went home that night lighted hearted, then straight to bed to dream of our VALENTINES.

MY ANSWER.

Why do I love you?
What a strange query!
Yet, If I could say,
I'd never grow weary
Of telling to flower
Grass blade and bird,
The loveliest secret
Ever they heard.

Why do I love you?
I shouldn't wonder
If laughter and tears
Soft music and thunder
Could blend all their voices
To answer you true,
They'd say that I love YOU
Because YOU are YOU!!

We had a skating party on the Mission rink. It was sponsored by the Children of Mary. The people of the town surely enjoyed themselves, since they were all invited, they tasted the good doughnuts and hot coffee. We enjoyed the skating keeping time with the music..... and besides.... skating with interesting partners.

CHURCH PARADE.... Today was a very special day for all the Guides Brownies and Boy Scouts all over Canada. It was the anniversary of Lord Baden Powell's death, a century ago. We all went to church with our respective leaders, and wearing the uniform. We received communion. Reverend Father Breault gave a wonderful sermon.

A notre tour de goûter à un délicieux repas, préparé par la Révérende Soeur Goyette, vrai cordon bleu de Resolution! Imaginez qu'elle nous a servi du vrai poulet...appétissant, frais, bien enveloppé dans du papier ciré. Le tout servi dans une assiette. Pour ne pas nous gêner, elle l'a déposé sur la galerie, et notre festin nocturne, comme tous les "parties of Res" d'ailleurs, fut sans égal! Est-ce vrai que vous avez été surprise et désappointée le lendemain? Pourtant nous n'avons laissé que le papier et l'assiette?? Nous l'avons trouvé très bon ce goûter!... Merci, Continuez!.....

We saw the beautiful film: THE KING of kings!...given to us by Reverend Father Mokwa Superior. We sat very silently looking intently at the works performed by CHRIST in His public life. WE were taken by the Institution of the Holy Eucharist, and we admired how after His FIRST Mass, He "so tenderly and reassuringly"

3 — promised His apostles that He would be with them till the end of times. Then came His passion! What horrible sufferings He went through for the "LOVE of US!" After His crucifixion, and death we saw on the screen, the earth that trembled, the rocks that split, the dead that arose from their graves and the veil of the Temple that was rent from top to bottom! The guards rushed down saying: "Indeed He was the Son of God!" the KING of kings!.... my KING!

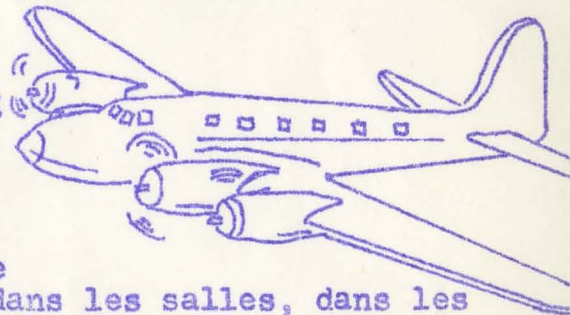

6 — On Ash Wednesday, we had a high Mass at 7 o'clock here in the Sister's chapel. Even though the chapel is small, it was full to capacity. Everyone received the ashes. "Remember O man, thou art dust and into dust thou shalt return." To start a perfect period of sacrifice we all received communion, to ask dear Jesus to help us to be good.

Another winter has passed and more progress has been made towards the restoration to health of most of the patients.

Lately there have been admitted a number of new patients with tuberculosis: this points out that this old disease is not passing into history-- on the other hand it remains the same implacable enemy as ready as ever to pounce on the run-down or underfed.

Those who have been in hospital for a longer time continue to improve and it is gratifying to note their increasing cheerfulness as their lungs improve.
