JUNIOR DRAMATICS

Under the capable direction of Mr. Emmett McArt, Mr. Lorenzo Deschamps and Miss Virginia Laroque, the boys of Grades 1—5 staged a very enjoyable evening's entertainment, October 29th.

The first playlet was "The Discontented Crow" . . . Peter Chabot narrated the story in a loud, clear cut voice, while Bruce McComber, as the crow, and Rolland Manitowabi, as the happy robin, fitted the actions to Peter's words . . . The little lads from Grade One gave a display of their progress in class in the persons of Jerry Nadiwan and Bruce McComber, both of whom recited nursery rhymes plus gestures and all.

Two songs and some selections by the Rhythm Band from Grades Four and Five added a fine musical touch to the programme. The highlight of the evening was "The Balboa Story" by these same two Grades . . . This play was done as part of their Social Studies, and told of Balboa's discovery of the Indian Ocean. Wallace Belleau, as Abie the money lender, and Albert Bonaparte, Balboa's part, were the main characters.

Congratulations to the younger girls of the convent who presented, that same evening, a fine Hallowe'en programme. Their musical choruses were very well done and their playlets interesting and entertaining.

The Teachers of the various Grades deserve a special word of praise for the successful outcome of their patient, painstaking labours.

Why teachers get grey—

"John Caneau . . . how many slices of bread did you have for breakfast?"

"Brother, I et three slices."

Why, John, you should say 'ate'."

"Well may be it was eight that I et."

BOXING

On October 17th the first Boxing Bout of the season was staged and it was a good show from the opening round to the final gong.

The boys were in there throwing punches with plenty of confidence and no quarter was asked by anyone. Every round was exciting and the gym rang with cheers from an enthusiastic audience. It was obvious that the Boxers had made excellent progress since Father Skillen took over the assignment as instructor in September.

Probably the best bout of the evening was between Eli Commanda and Adam Roy. These lads at 120 pounds were really good and would be an attraction on any boxing card. Tall rangy lads, they have developed a fine ring technique, have plenty of speed and a good punch.

Another outstanding bout in the 140 pound class between Henry Deere and Chancey Benedict drew a good hand of applause from the crowd. Frankie Commanda, Clement Trudeau and Arnold Belleau showed plenty of class in their own divisions and much is expected of them.

There was not one of the boxers who didn't put up a good fight and they deserve great credit for their fine sportsmanship.

Father Skillen handled the boys in the ring with all the ease and grace of a professional. Judges for the evening were Mr. William McGrath and Mr. Joseph Sammon. Seconds in the ring, Bob Syrette and Cecil King . . . Time Keepers . . . Alvin Nashiwe and Julius Neganegigig . . . Alfie Cooper announced the bouts . . .

EDITORIAL

November is the month of the Holy Souls in Purgatory and a very fitting time to pray for our deceased relatives and friends . . . Among others whom we ought to remember this year, are two former Indian Missionaries . . . Father Joseph C. Cadot, S.J., and Father T. Dwyer, S.J.

FATHER T. DWYER, S.J.

Father Tim's death, last June, was a sad loss to all who knew him. He had endeared himself to his many parishioners both by his unceasing labours for their temporal welfare, and by his untiring zeal and boundless generosity for the good of their souls. Father Tim's one desire was to work more and more for his people and death took him as he was about to finish a new Church at Garden River.

FATHER CADOT, S.J.

In the quiet of the Novitiate at Guelph last week died the well known and much loved missionary, Father Cadot. For almost forty years he lived and worked among the Indians of Cape Croker and surroundings to bring into their lives the good news of the Gospel. How much he did for the Indians of Georgian Bay regions may be gauged by the love and respect shown him on his Golden Jubilee. Then it was that the Protestant Minister raised a fund with the help of the community for the erection of a monument of thanksgiving to Father Cadot. This monument was unveiled in his presence during the celebrations in honour of his jubilee, and stands to keep alive the love the Indians of the country round have for their devoted missionary.

At the time of his death, Father Cadot was 87 years old; he had celebrated not only his golden but also his diamond jubilee, and was well on the way to his seventieth anniversary. His diamond jubilee came in the spring of 1943, four years after he was retired to Guelph. He, himself came to the banquet in his honour, fully prepared with

RESULTS OF THE BOXING MATCH

CLASS

- 75 lbs.—Junior Belleau won the decision over John Souliere.
80 lbs.—Teddy Jacobs and Jimmy Kitchikok fought a draw.
85 lbs.—Bruce McCumber and Albert Bonaparte fought a draw.
90 lbs.—Jimmy Norton and Arnold Nadjiwan — won by Jimmy Norton.
88 lbs.—Billy Shawanis won a decision over Clement Kitchikok.
89 lbs.—Ken Antoine won a decision over Eddie Notron.
90 lbs.—Arnold Belleau won a decision over Stanley Petawanakwat.
110 lbs.—Clement Trudeau won a decision over Bobby Daybutch.
120 lbs.—Eli Commanda - Adam Roy, no decision.
130 lbs.—Eugene Fox won a decision over Basil Johnston.
140 lbs.—Henry Deere split decision with Chancey Benedict.
140 lbs.—Frankie Commanda won a decision over Alphonse Trudeau.

A special attraction bout of the evening saw Dominic McCumber, 6 ft. and weighing 145 lbs. staging a furious battle with Russel Jacko 5 ft. and weighing 100 lbs. . . . Dominic made it look like a good fight, staggering under the small fists of Russell and taking the count of nine several times.

Training is being carried on vigorously in preparation for the bout on November 13th. It promises to be an even bigger show.

speeches in English, French and Indian. Far from being a mournful foreboding of death his voice carried a vigour more like that of an active worker in the mission field than of an elderly man of eighty three.

Everyone of us regret to see him leave, but we all are comforted in knowing that he has inherited by his death a big reward . . . God rest the soul of this warrior for Christ.

TOUCH RUGBY

"Wowee", four brand new footballs! One each for the Seniors, Intermediates, Juniors and Midgets. They were all slick and shiny at the beginning of the football season but now, after a month's league games, they are no longer new. In fact, the seams on all four are a little worse for the wear, but we have a great deal of activity to show for that wear and tear.

Morning, noon and night, there is always some group of boys out in the yard passing or kicking the footballs. Besides every noon recreation sees two teams from each division out to play their scheduled league games.

SENIOR RED WINGS IN THE LEAD

The competition is keen in the Senior Division. Speed and tricky basketball passes have given Maxie's Red Wings a one point lead over the slower but steadier Canadians. It will be a close battle between these two teams for the top position and for the right to be in on the Jamboree at the end of the month.

In the Intermediate Division, Harold Copagog and his "Maple Leafs" have yet to suffer a defeat. Their eleven wins give them 22 points and an almost certain chance of being at the Jamboree. In second place, with 14 points, are the Black Hawks.

JUNIOR JUGGLERS

In the Junior League our game is a variety of American Touch Rugby, with of course our own ground rules. For speed and sport we have done away with huddles, and our method of snapping the ball into play is somewhat out of line with the rules of football, but for ball-handling and excitement our game is unexcelled.

The Black Hawks, who in September showed themselves unsurpassed in baseball, have shown themselves equally successful this month in football. Stanley Trudeau, their captain, is himself a leading sportsman, a man more of action than of words. Everyone will admit that his team has had the edge over the other teams in the Junior League in the size and ability of his players, but the continued success of his team after the loss of Terry Jacobs to the Red Wings and Lawrence Mandamin to the Intermediates has its full explanation only with the inclusion of teamwork.

Since Terry Jacobs has taken command of the Red Wings, there has been up to press time no game Red Wings vs. Black Hawks . . . Moreover since Terry's coming, the Red Wings haven't lost a game. Black Hawks beware . . . Perhaps the Red Wings have the 'open sesame' to your tightly locked first place in the League. We'll be watching next week's games to see if they have.

MIDGETS IN THE NEWS

This autumn soccer has become more popular than ever. Even the smallest boys, who had never seen a football before, are now taking an active part in the games. Boys like Billy Antoine, Herby Mitchell, Archie Southwind have caught the idea behind the game. Already they know the basic rules of the game, and now are quickly mastering many of the fine points, such as, how and when to bunt another player, the advantages of formation play and of passing. To watch these Midgets play is a pleasure. So say even the bigger boys . . . Albert Bonaparte, an ex-midget, is not alone in offering to show them how to play.
