175 Delegates At North Bay Anniversary

Officers of the Woman's Auxiliary Hold Executive Meeting

Officers of the Woman's Auxiliary for the Diocese of Algoma Anglican Church of Canada, held an executive meeting May 31, at the Church of St. John the Divine, North Bay, in conjunction with the diocesan meeting. Seated from left are: Mrs. A. R.

Priddle, recording secretary; Mrs. H. M. Monteith, president; and Mrs. G. D. Taylor, treasurer; all of Sault Ste. Marie. Standing from left are: Mrs. F. L. Atwill, acting seventh vice-president, Nipigon; Mrs. A. McCandless, fifth vice-president, Sudbury; Mrs. E. E. Wonch, fourth vice-president, North Bay; Miss D. E. Coate, third vice-president, Rosseau; Mrs. J. D. Cullen, first vice-president, Sault Ste. Marie; Mrs. W. Peeling, eighth vice-president, Bruce Mines; Mrs. S. B. Lee, sixth vice-president, Gore Bay. Prior to the meeting the out-of-town officers were entertained at dinner by the three North Bay officers: Mrs. Wonch, Mrs. W. G. Turnbull and Mrs. G. Edwards, with the assistance of the Henrietta Sharvell Group.

NORTH BAY — The work of the Anglican Church and the Woman's Auxiliary in the diocese and throughout the world was discussed by Mrs. H. M. Monteith, diocesan president, when she addressed approximately 175 delegates attending the diocesan conference of the Woman's Auxiliary at the Church of St. John the Divine.

Mrs. Monteith referred to news of the Royal Family, touching briefly on the visit last year of Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip, and more recently, of the birth of Prince Andrew.

She told the delegates that at that time Mrs. F. H. Reid, secretary-treasurer of the Little Helpers, had sent good wishes to the new prince from the thousand of Little Helpers in the diocese.

EXTENDS THANKS

Mrs. Monteith extended warm thanks to the combined auxiliaries in North Bay, St. John's, St. Brice's, and Christ Church, for their hospitality. She added it was most fitting that this year, the 75th anniversary of the founding of the WA, the diocesan conference should be held at the church to which the oldest branch in the diocese is located.

"The service of holy communion this morning gave us the opportunity to humbly thank God for His great blessing upon our work," the speaker continued. "We thank the Lord Archbishop and the members of the clergy for their assistance in our services."

Mrs. Monteith reminded the

A Holiday Feature

Like many of its readers, the Algoma Anglican plans to take a holiday during the summer months and this June edition will be the final one until September. We urge our many parish correspondents, however, to keep a record of newsworthy events during July and August so that we will be able to report them in the autumn.

Knowing that many readers will be making good use of the highways during their holiday travel time, the editors felt that travellers would appreciate a map of the Diocese of Algoma. It is a well-marked map and will be found on pages 4 and 5.

Extending from Fort William and Port Arthur on the west to the resort centres of Gravenhurst and Huntsville at the eastern end, this large map of the Diocese takes in the host of parishes you have been reading about during the past year.

We urge you to visit as many of them as you can. Happy holidaying!

Bequest to Diocese

The family of the late Canon S. F. Yeomans, formerly rector of St. Luke's, Fort William, have set up a bursary in the form of a divinity students' fund, the interest of which will be applied towards the college expenses of young men who are volunteering for Holy Orders from St. Luke's parish, Fort William. Failing application from this parish, it can be used at the discretion of the Archbishop for any student who resides in the Diocese of Algoma.

The bursary is to be known as the Sidney and Isabel Yeomans Divinity Student Fund. This is indeed a worthy project and it is to be hoped that others in the Diocese of Algoma may see fit to set up bursaries to help deserving students.

ARCHBISHOP'S LETTER

Diocesan Extension Fund Is Reviewed

My dear People:

The regular quarterly meeting of the Executive Committee of the Diocese of Algoma, was held in Sault Ste. Marie on May 10th. Excellent reports were presented and the majority of the Committee were in attendance.

The highlight of the meeting was the discussion of the Archbishop Wright Church Extension Fund and the progress which has been made through the generosity of our Algoma family during the past three or four years. It was heart-warming to learn of the number of new churches, parish halls, and rectories, which have been erected to God's glory through the generosity of all the parishioners. Approximately $370,000 has already been received in cash on the original pledge total of $500,000.

The Executive Committee have in good faith authorized advances of $566,000 in the conviction that all parishes will contribute one hundred per cent on their pledges. Accordingly the Executive Committee are reluctant to authorize further loans until the diocese has consolidated its position. This means that congregations who are privileged to worship in their new churches are obligated to make regular payments on the loans to them from the Extension Fund, so that additional money will be available for further extension work. It also means that parishes who have made pledges are asked to redouble their efforts in fulfilling their original obligations to the Extension Fund. Thus the diocese will be relieved of the heavy cost of interest charges in carrying loans at the Bank.

It has been a romantic story of faith and generosity on the part of loyal members of the diocese, and we give thanks to God for the wonderful response. Our readers of the Algoma Anglican will be delighted to know that the contributions made to the Extension Fund have given opportunities for hundreds of families in new areas to worship in their own Anglican Church.

I therefore urge all clergy and laity of the diocese to make an intensive effort now and during this coming Autumn to join in the diocesan-wide crusade to fulfill the original pledges and to meet the spiritual opportunities which are still before us. We cannot and must not expand our diocesan responsibilities too far afield until such time as our financial obligations are fulfilled.

This letter may appear to contain much financial data but its contents are really sacramental in character. The magnificent response from the diocese towards this worthy objective is the outward and visible sign of the zeal and devotion of those faithful members of the Church who are Christ's followers.

May God richly bless you all and bring you to the realization of the immediate challenge before us at the present time.

Your friend and Archbishop,
WILLIAM L. ALGOMA

'Need This Year Is Refugee Problem'

Mary Rendell Guest Speaker At Conference

NORTH BAY — "The Woman's Auxiliary has kept alive and grown from small beginnings to what it is now because it has had God's blessing," Miss Mary Rendell, executive secretary of the Dominion Board of the Woman's Auxiliary, told approximately 175 delegates to the Diocesan Conference held in North Bay.

"What it is that God has sent the Church to do, we must help do it," she said. "Surely our program must reflect our purpose. If all the things we do when we come together do not reflect our purpose, then how are people to believe in us?" she asked. "Is our program a true reflection of our purpose?"

The WA must be a true part of church life, not just an isolated unit, she said. "Today, if we are to fulfill our place in the life of the Church, we have to be sure to be involved in church life."

Members of the WA cannot rely only on the statistics of membership and giving when they attempt to see if the WA is growing in the way it should, said Miss Rendell. The only way this can be gauged is by seeing "whether or not you seize the opportunities you get, and whether you see the needs as they come along and respond to them. The need this year is the refugee problem!" she said. "We should respond to this need as it comes and not just repeat what we did last year."

"In an anniversary year, we should stop and consider what the Auxiliary is," pointed out Miss Rendell. "We need to say what it is." The WA exists for the sake of its members in that it helps each one fulfill herself and her duty to God, she said. It also exists for the sake of others. "Our perspective has to include children of our own church, those people who are neighbors but not friends, and to the Indians, immigrants and all the world."

"The WA is not an auxiliary to the church, but of the church," Miss Rendell said. "We should be helpers and encouragers. It makes so much difference in many things."

ladies that they would begin Thursday's sessions with a quiet hour conducted by Archbishop Wright.

"This quiet hour will give us time to ponder our responsibilities as church women," she stated. "And to evaluate our attitudes to others around us. The presence of the archbishop and Mrs. Wright gives the members a chance to express their gratitude to them for their support and help."

The Dominion Board has introduced a plan to mark the 75th anniversary of the WA. A conference of Juniors' and Girls' secretaries will be held at Qu'Appelle, April 16, 1962, and from this conference will come the future pattern for leadership training.

Mrs. Monteith referred to the election of the new primate in September, 1959, extending good wishes to him from the diocesan WA and their constant loyalty.

"World Refugee Year is being observed this year," she continued. "We can't begin to believe the anguish of the refugees. Our primate has set up a special fund to help these people. It is our duty to do whatever we can to set these heart-breaking conditions right."

Church Must Be Brave Enough To Help Indians Integrate

NORTH BAY — "We should not attempt to integrate Indians into the rest of the population too quickly," Archdeacon Ahab Spence, Bishop's Commissary for the Diocese of Saskatchewan and a Cree Indian himself, told delegates to the 75th anniversary meeting of the Anglican Women's Auxiliary of St. John's Parish hall.

"Let's not go at integration too quickly," he said. "I do not think that human life is something that can be readjusted overnight — it must come from the heart."

WORLD ISOLATION

The Indian today is more in the national conscience than at any time, said Father Spence. "I do not know if this is from a feeling of guilt or a result of Refugee Year, but people are looking for more information about the Indian."

The whole idea of the world is becoming smaller, he said, and the world isolation or reservation is beginning to be a symbol of the past.

"With the disappearance of small, isolated prairie towns, a sense of interdependence is growing, both in the communities and in the world."

Because of the impact of civilization on the reservations, there have been significant reactions, said Father Spence. At present in the reservations, "there is a sense of confusion and turmoil with all that is going on. The Indian child today is reaching a crucial stage. The next 10 years will be a challenging age for him."

Of the seven reservations in the Diocese of Saskatchewan, Father Spence believes that only one of these is even partially ready for integration. For this to take place, he said, laws are necessary, and regulations essential, but it has to go deeper than that.

The whole policy of the church must be brave enough, bold enough, and able to change to help the Indian with the idea of readjusting, said Father Spence. "We are fortunate in having teachers of the Anglican faith on our reservations. We need these teachers — they can do so much to calm this storm of the advance of civilization."

"We have people on the reservations who are on the fringe of civilization," he said. "Since there is no work on the reservations, they go to the white communities to work. Try to look at it (integration) from this point of view," he urged delegates. "If an Indian decides to leave the reservation, he signs papers and is given the magnificent sum of $50. He then cannot go back to the reservation, and is never too sure of his job in the white community. I am pleading with you not to try to do this too fast."

TOO MUCH DISTINCTION

Although Indians are proud of their ancestry, there is a danger of making too much distinction between the Indian and the white, pointed out Father Spence. "Sometimes I feel we use this 'Indian' idea too strongly — we have Indian hospitals and Indian schools. We emphasize the 'Indian' too much."

Father Spence was introduced by Mrs. A. E. Minchin, of Powassan, and thanked by Mrs. F. Nock, of Sault Ste. Marie.

Executive members, from the left, are Mrs. W. Tilston, Junior secretary - treasurer, Whitefish Falls; Mrs. H. T. Chennells, Living Message secretary-treasurer, Sault Ste. Marie; Mrs. F. H. Reid, Little Helpers' secretary-treasurer, Sudbury; Mrs. W. G. Turnbull, educational secretary-treasurer, North Bay; Mrs. G. D. Taylor, treasurer, Sault Ste. Marie; Mrs. G. Edwards, social service secretary-treasurer, North Bay; Mrs. W. H. Caulfield, thankoffering secretary - treasurer, Sault Ste. Marie; Mrs. W. Fellowes, Dorcas secretary - treasurer, Sudbury; Mrs. J. Henderson, extra-cent-a-day secretary - treasurer, Sault Ste. Marie. Absent were Mrs. S. G. Trevor, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Yrjola, recording secretary, Sault Ste. Marie.

Archbishop Praises Canon Yeomans

FORT WILLIAM — Most Rev. W. L. Wright, DD, Archbishop of Algoma and Metropolitan of Ontario, officiated at the Scriptural and Apostolic Rite of the Laying On Of Hands at St. Luke's Church.

The church was filled to overflowing with relatives and friends of the candidates for this most impressive service. Prior to his remarks to the class, the Archbishop paid tribute to the late Rev. Canon S. F. Yeomans, who had served the parish so faithfully for so many years. He charged those present to be regular in their attendance at worship.

Women Give $750 After Appeal by Archbishop

BENEDICT

O Ye Angels Of The Lord,
Bless Ye The Lord: Praise
Him, And Magnify Him Forever

Most of us have had our childhood thoughts and visions of angels; lovely fairy-like beings with golden hair, shimmering wings, and long white dresses, appearing in a blaze of glowing light. Perhaps we have dreamlike memories of hearing the fluttering of their wings, or of seeing the grass move softly as they pass by. But many of us have put the angels away in a box along with our dolls and teddy bears (though we may look back on them at times with something like home - sickness, and wish it had all been true).

Yet, we can't read the Bible without finding a great deal about angels, and, since we believe the Scriptures, we surely must accept the fact that there really are angels. But what are they like? How can our childhood belief become an adult belief? In this, as in all things, the Scriptures will teach us. We will learn to see angels as strong, glorious beings of indescribable beauty, whose lives are given to the worship of God and the service of Man.

The writings of the Old Testament Prophets, and the Book of Revelations, are full of word pictures of the worship of the angels in heaven, how they bless the Lord and praise Him and magnify Him. Here we can find inspiration for our own worship of Him. And in nearly all the books of the Bible we find stories of angels being sent by God to help men, as messengers and "ministering spirits." We find them comforting, strengthening, prophesying, punishing, warning, encouraging, teaching, healing, guiding.

In Isaiah 6:3, we hear the angels crying "Holy, Holy, Holy, is the Lord of Hosts; the whole earth is full of His glory." In I Kings, 19 we see an angel bringing food and drink and strengthening words to Elijah in his time of trouble and despair. In Numbers 22 we find an angel showing concern for a little mistreated donkey. No praise can be too great and glorious, no service too humble, for these, most perfect Works of the Lord.

It is our privilege and duty to join with angels and archangels and all the company of heaven to laud and magnify His glorious Name. It is no less a duty, and no less a privilege, to join with them in the humblest service to our brothers and sisters and fellow - creatures.

God will show us, through the Scriptures, how impossible it is for us to kneel and say "Holy, Holy, Holy," with the angels, and at the same time to close our minds to the needs and troubles of His other children. Also, how equally impossible it is to try to "go about doing good" unless we are continually looking at Him and saying "Holy, Holy, Holy," in our hearts.

Port Arthur Spring Tea Is Tremendous Success

PORT ARTHUR — More than 400 guests enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Stan Mack, 232 Summit Ave., when she opened her spacious home for St. John's Woman's Auxiliary spring tea.

Mrs. Mack and Mrs. C. Humby, president, received the guests assisted by hostesses, mesdames W. S. Tomlinson, J. A. Raynard, Charles Dille, E. M. Jellet, L. A. Norman, A. Manley and H. E. Perry.

Tea was served in the beautifully appointed family room and dining room where the tea table, draped with a lace cloth and centred with an artistic arrangement of blue iris and white baby chrysanthemums was presided over by past presidents. They were Mrs. Jellet, St. John's Church, Mrs. T. Barton, St. Michael's Church, Mrs. William McKissick, St. Stephen's Church, and Mrs. A. Sim, St. George's Church.

Serving tea were Mesdames H. E. Clayton, D. J. Young, R. J. Prettie, F. F. Sargent, N. Wilson, George Brabrooke, W. N. Seaman, and H. J. Watt. Miss G. Langworthy, Mrs. T. Alexander and Mrs. G. Walsh replenished the tea table. Assisting in the kitchen were Mrs. R. Tansley, Mrs. A. E. Bannister, Mrs. E. Crossland with tea being brewed by Mrs. E. D. Griffin and Mrs. H. Whitehouse.

South River Youth Receives Confirmation in Wheel Chair

SOUTH RIVER — March 13 proved a most memorable day for 18-year-old Tommy Walker. It was the day of his confirmation.

Tommy lives on a farm with his parents in a remote area several miles outside South River. He has been confined to a wheel chair for several years as the result of muscular dystrophy.

During the winter Tommy prepared for his confirmation with the help of his mother and Rev. E. D. Eldridge of Sundridge, On March 18, Most Rev. W. L.

Wright, archbishop of Algoma, made a special trip to the farm and Tommy was confirmed.

Attending the service were Tommy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Walker, Rev. E. D. Eldridge and Mr. and Mrs. Max Loney.

Although confined to a wheel chair, Tommy is most cheerful and is still able to use his hands, although it is becoming increasingly difficult. He constructs model cars and has done some fine leather work, many of the items he made having been sold.

Sudbury Woman's Auxiliary Service Marks Anniversary

SUDBURY — The Women's Auxiliary of the Church of the Epiphany united with branches in the surrounding area in May to mark the 75th anniversary year of the WA.

The evening opened in the church with a service conducted by the rector, Rev. S. M. Craymer, assisted by Rev. C. Clay. Mrs. L. Ashcroft and Mrs. A. McCandless acted as sidesladies, and Miss Edna Maggs was guest soloist with Grant Boland, organist.

Mr. Craymer addressed the WA members and commented on the great achievement of the auxiliary since its founding 75 years ago. He also stressed that the ladies should not rest on past laurels but keep on advancing the good work.

Attending the special service along with the Epiphany WA and Evening Branch were members from Azilda, Coniston, Copper Cliff, Falconbridge, Garson, Lively, Creighton, Lockerby, Minnow Lake, Onaping, Levack, Capreol, and the Good Shepherd Group from RCAF Station Falconbridge.

SOCIAL EVENING

Following the closing prayers a social evening was held in the parish hall which was decorated by Mrs. S. Butcher using the WA motif.

Guest speaker Miss Watson was introduced by Mrs. H. Otton, deanery JA secretary. Miss Watson was born near Capetown, Africa, and her address on the general country and climate was most interesting. She also discussed various aspects of the Moslem way of life. Miss Watson trained as a nurse in Africa and spoke briefly on her hospital work.

The guest speaker was thanked by Mrs. J. C. Clarke, deanery GA secretary.

The decorated birthday cake was lighted by Mrs. G. E. Evans. Tea and coffee pourers were life members: Mrs. J. R. Wainwright, Mrs. W. E. Davies, Mrs. J. C. Wood and Mrs. F. C. Lane, Mrs. R. Martindale, daughter of a former rector, Canon Bagdell, cut the cake.

Assisting with arrangements for the evening were Mrs. G. E. Evans, general convener; Mrs. W. I. Merrick, Mrs. F. Fought, Mrs. S. Butcher, and servers Mrs. R. Brooks, Mrs. L. W. Ashcroft, Mrs. B. McAdam, Mrs. E. Higgins, Mrs. W. E. Cressey, Mrs. Fred Reid, Mrs. Madge Berard, Mrs. N. Heise and Mrs. S. Freeland.

Sudbury Junior Choir Stages Fine Performance

SUDBURY — The idea of a performance by the Junior Choir of the Church of the Ascension first took root in the mind of the Choir Directress, Mrs. Henry Morrow. Like Topsy, the idea grew and grew with the result that on Friday evening, May 27, a group of enthusiastic entertainers ranging from four to age unlimited, entertained an equally enthusiastic audience.

As the pictures show the evening included such gems as a Mother Goose pantomime complete with Three Little Kittens and Jack and Jill (as well as a number of the best known nursery rhymes), a baton twirling display; an eye-opening Charleston and last but not least a real live Minstrel Show.

Although there are no pictures to prove it, you can rest assured that the junior choir turned in a creditable performance. Among the other highlights were a square dance by some of the choir members capably directed by Mrs. Don Lawrence, whose dancing skill also extended to the talented and laughable Charleston.

The original idea was that the proceeds were to be used for a contribution from the junior choir to the organ fund. However, as the idea and the size of the show grew it was decided that the majority of the proceeds should go to World Refugee Year Fund.

It was a worth while show for two worth while projects. There must be talent galore at the Church of the Ascension and it is to be hoped that another one can be scheduled at some future date.

Whitefish Falls Camp Ready For 50 Boys

WHITEFISH FALLS — The annual choir school and CBL Camp, which is held at St. Augustine's School each year, will take place from July 24 to 30th this year. The director of the school, Rev. M. P. Thomas, said recently that plans were going ahead very well. He hopes that all staff arrangements will be completed within the next couple of weeks, and that the application forms will be in the hands of those concerned early this month.

One thing which should be stressed is that only 50 applications can be accepted this year. It was found last time that it was impossible to accommodate more boys than this with any degree of comfort. Therefore it is to be hoped that the boys will send in their applications as soon as they are received.

So far, several of the staff appointments have been definitely settled. Rev. F. G. Roberts and Rev. R. H. Nixon have agreed to serve as house masters again. Unfortunately replacements will have to be made for the other two house masters, as Rev. L. R. A. Sutherland and David Johnston will be unable to attend. Three of the counsellors will also be returning — Winston Hardacre of Lively; Peter Wright of Sault Ste. Marie; and Tom Fulton of Sudbury. The remaining staff appointments will be announced as soon as they have been made.

This combined choir school and CBL Camp is designed to provide the boys with a week of balanced work and play. Great attention is given to the training of choristers.

Each day a period of CBL instruction is given, and also practical work is provided, so that the boys are able to pass some of their tests and badge requirements whilst attending the camp. The afternoons are devoted to sports activities, including swimming, baseball and various other inter-house competitions.

In the evenings, entertainment, prepared by the boys themselves, form the major portion of the program. It need hardly be added that worship is given its rightful place.

Moosonee Bishop Pays Visit to St. Brice's

NORTH BAY — On May 1, the congregation of St. Brice's enjoyed a rare treat when Right Reverend C. C. Robinson, Bishop of Moosonee, was their guest and was the Celebrant at Holy Communion at 9 a.m. and the guest preacher at 11 a.m.

The invitation had been extended by the rector, Rev. B. G. Gosse, on the occasion of the Ordination to the Priesthood of Rev. Ken Phythian on Nov. 30, 1959, in Noranda. His Lordship accepted the invitation and it was agreed that at the first opportunity he would visit St. Brice's.

Arriving in North Bay on the evening of Saturday, April 30, his first act after driving from Toronto, was a visit to Canon and Mrs. J. Blackburn to renew a friendship of many years standing.

Preaching at 11 a.m. His Lordship took his text from 2nd Timothy, Chapter 1, verse 7. "For God hath not given us the spirit of fear, but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind".

It would perhaps be more correct to say that instead of preaching, His Lordship engaged in a simple, but direct and forceful heart-to-heart talk to the congregation on the theme of World Refugees and stated that Canada should be doing much more in the matter of resettling these refugees and asked pointedly, "What is Canada afraid of?", "What is the Church afraid of?" and "What are individual Christians afraid of?" For God hath not given us a spirit of fear.

Rev. B. G. Gosse expressed the hope that this, although the first, would not be the last visit of His Lordship and issued a sincere invitation that on future return journeys from Toronto, he would consider North Bay and St. Brice's as "half-way house".

Girls at Rosseau Hosts to Mothers

ROSSEAU — The Girls' Auxiliary of the Church of the Redeemer, entertained their mothers and the ladies who helped with the recent rally.

The girls invited their guests, including Rev. Robert Charles, for 2.00 o'clock at the home of their leader, Mrs. Allen. The program included a G.A. song with Marilyn Allen at the piano other songs, duets, and a report by Margaret Charles and Marilyn Allen on the trip to Sudbury and the two - day festival. Sharon Atkinson was the chairman and Doreen Holton was hostess.

The girls presented each mother with an American beauty rose for Mother's Day; a tiny gift was presented by Doreen Holton to Rev. Mr. Charles and a lovely cup and saucer was given to Mrs. Stoneman by Sharon Atkinson, for her kindness in teaching the girls to make copper pictures.

Thumbnail Sketches

Many readers of the Algoma Anglican have asked from time to time for stories and pictures of the clergymen in the Diocese of Algoma. While many of them do appear in the reports of regular events which appear here each month, they are merely names to the readers from outside their particular parish. Rev. Alfred Reimers of Nipigon has prepared a series of "thumbnail sketches" of the clergy for use in the Algoma Anglican. This month we are pleased to present the eighth of this series on The Ven Julian S. Smedley, St. John the Evangelist, Sault Ste. Marie:

The Ven. Julian S. Smedley is one of the native sons of our diocese, born on St. Joseph's Island in 1895. He finished his schooling in Toronto, receiving an L. Th. from Trinity College. Like many others, his career was interrupted by the First World War. From 1916 to 1919 he served overseas with the 58th Battalion, C.E.F.

Since ordination Mr. Smedley has served parishes in Port Carling, Bracebridge and Port Arthur, taking time out from 1942 to 1946 to serve as an army chaplain. Now he is rector of the parish of St. John the Evangelist, Sault Ste. Marie, and Archdeacon of Algoma.

Mr. Smedley's family consists of his wife, Mary (a former high school teacher), two daughters, Mary Louise and Margaret Jean (both married) and a son, Gordon Julian, who is studying at the University of Manitoba. (Margaret Jean is married to another priest of the diocese, the Rev. Fred Roberts of Blind River.)

VEN. J. S. SMEDLEY

When the Archdeacon has some free time, he likes to spend it on his hobbies of photography and handicraft work.

Juniors Have Fun At Sudbury Rally

SUDBURY—Over 90 children, representing junior auxiliaries of six Sudbury area Anglican churches, gathered recently at the Church of the Ascension for the 1960 JA festival. The rally was arranged by auxiliary leaders of Nipissing Deanery churches from points as far as Capreol and Onaping.

The afternoon started with a short church service, and an address by Rev. H. Morrow, rector of the Church of the Ascension. To honor the 75th year of the Woman's Auxiliary, a model of a birthday cake was made by the hostess church WA and the Jr. Auxiliary members, and the offerings placed inside. The group from St. John's Church in Copper Cliff, led by Mrs. Gilbert Thompson, gave the Bible reading. The service concluded with a hymn sung by the young congregation.

During the rally, games, dances skits and a quiz were enjoyed by the juniors. The program included an opening introduction by Mrs. H. A. Otton, of the Church of the Epiphany; games, directed by Mrs. L. Hoover, of All Saints Church, Onaping and Azilda, and a talk by Mrs. W. Tilston, of Whitefish Falls, diocesan secretary for the junior auxiliary.

Bremner thanked Mr. Parnell.

Final arrangements were discussed for the parish picnic, June 19, to be held at Camp Tillicum.

Sports, Drama, Courses On Girls' Camp Program

By PAT CONNOLLY

SAULT STE. MARIE — School will be over soon and we will be going to summer camps. I should like to tell you about one of the best camps I know of—the Girls' Auxiliary Camp.

GA camp is held at Whitefish Falls in the early part of July. The camp program takes in many things such as sports, swimming, drama, altar guild, campcraft and first aid. Of course it is also part of every camp to have chores.

Every day is a little different from the rest. We had a Sports Day in which the whole camp took part, a Backwards Day which brought forth weird and various costumes on the part of the staff, and a Courtship Day for which half of the camp became boys.

Of course, as this was a church camp, church played a large part in our camp life. We started every morning with Holy Communion and finished every evening with a service in St. Augustine's church. During the day we were instructed in religion by Sister Benedetta CSC.

AG camp lasts for a week and costs only $10. For further information contact your local priest. I hope to see many of you at camp this summer.

St. Luke's Cathedral Bride's Tea Successful

SAULT STE. MARIE — St. Luke's Cathedral Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary sponsored a "Bride's Tea" in the parish hall, and the event proved most successful.

The auditorium was decorated with apple blossoms and other spring flowers, following the general idea of a bridal reception. The tea table was most attractive, centred with a five-tiered wedding cake, silver candelabra holding white tapers, and spring flowers.

Pouring tea were Mrs. W. L. Wright, Mrs. H. M. Monteith, Mrs. H. Chennells, Mrs. A. R. Priddle, Mrs. F. T. Dwyer and Mrs. A. H. Hackett.

Articles for sale at the different tables included gifts for bridal and kitchen showers, home baking, and peppermint patties.

Mrs. Douglas played several piano selections during the afternoon. Mrs. W. H. Caufield had charge of tickets, assisted by Mrs. Dwyer.

Guests were received by Mrs. F. F. Nock and Mrs. W. Brittain. Mrs. Brittain was in charge of decorations.

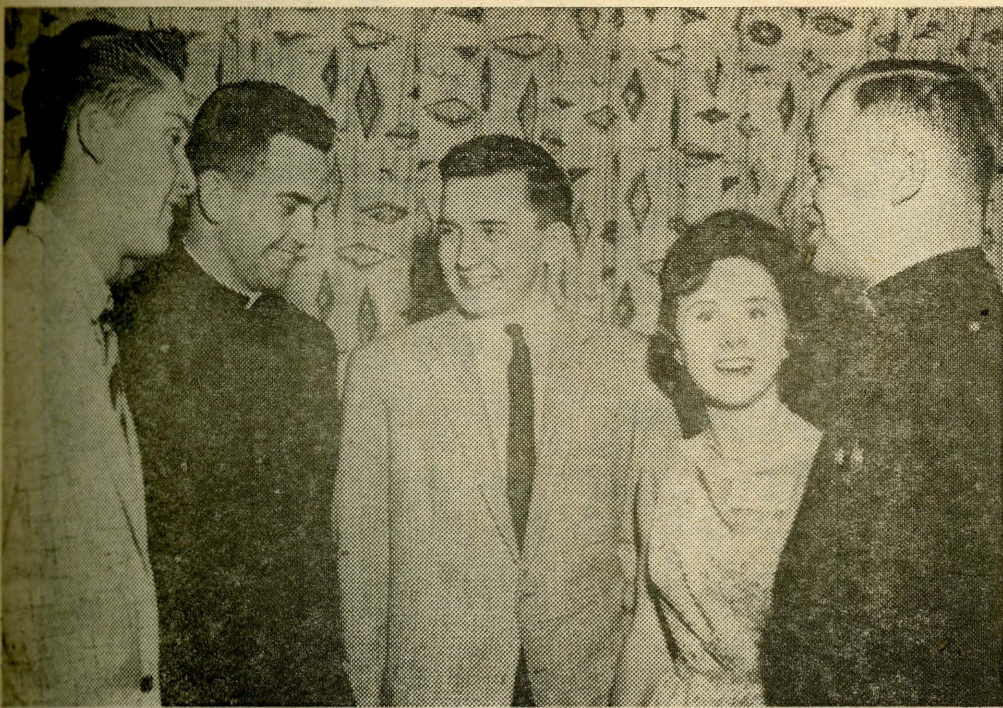

Are you proud of the amount of your Church Pledge, or are you ashamed for anyone else to know how little you care for God's works?

WORDS OF THE WISE

All men are equal; it is not birth but virtue alone that makes the difference.

AMEN CORNER

Good Things in New Prayer Book
By Canon Roland F. Palmer, SSJE

A favorite exclamation during services in the early Church was "Maran-atha." It means "The Lord comes" or "Come, Lord." In the Latin Church of the West this re-appears as "Dominus Vobiscum" "The Lord be with you" or "The Lord is with you." A blessing and a statement of fact.

The Church is the Body of Christ and so where two or three members of the Body are gathered in His Name there is Jesus in the midst, for He is the head of the Body. Unless Jesus is present our worship cannot be acceptable to the Father.

We use "The Lord be with you" twice in the renewed Communion Office. The first part of the Service is a ministry of God's Word. The second part is a ministry of the Sacrament. Near the beginning of each part we invoke the Lord's presence; first before the Collect, Epistle and Gospel and next before "Lift up your hearts." The priest wishes us the best of all blessings: "The Lord be with you," and we wish it back to him again.

Apart from the Lord, the reading of scripture can do us no good. Apart from the Lord, the Sacrament would be an empty formality. But with the Lord, Word and Sacrament spring into life. Jesus is the one who is really at the head of His Table. He uses the lips and hands of his minister the priest to proclaim his Message and to bless and break the bread and bless the Cup.

THE GOSPEL AND RESPONSE

In the Holy Gospel the Church holds up before us our Lord Jesus. We watch him in his works of love. We listen to his words. God the Son took human nature upon him and was born into this world so that we might see and hear just what God is like. In the reading of the Gospel we look up to him in adoring love. "Thanks be to Thee O Lord" is a good response, but does not make it quite clear that it is to our Lord Jesus that we offer praise. In the renewed Prayer Book it is made clearer by responding "Praise be to thee, O Christ."

Of course there is another response to the Gospel and that is the Creed. Because of what we have come to know about God through his holy word we learn to have faith in him, to put our whole trust and confidence in him Father, Son and Holy Spirit; and therefore we say "I believe in one God."

THE CREED

In the Creed we not only say that we believe certain things about God but that we believe in God. We put our whole trust and confidence in him because of the wonderful things he has done for us and which we recite in the Creed.

In the renewed Prayer Book there are a few changes of translation in the Nicene Creed.

The punctuation is also improved "God, of God" Our Lord Jesus is God who has his being from eternal God. "By whom all things were made" refers to God the Son. In the present translation it may sound to some as though it refers to God the Father. "Through whom all things were made" makes the matter clearer. "The Holy Ghost the Lord, the Giver of life" is better than the present "The Lord and giver of life" "The Lord" is a title to show that the Holy Spirit is true God. He is also "the Giver of life." He is more than the Lord of life, He is God and Lord of all.

"Holy" has been restored before "Catholic and Apostolic Church. It had dropped out through some mistake. Until the members of the Church are holy outward unity cannot be restored.

Mothers Are Guests At Banquet in Soo

SAULT STE. MARIE — An enjoyable evening was spent at St. Paul's Anglican Church when the Girls' Auxiliary and the Junior Auxiliary held their first mother and daughter banquet. It was also the occasion for The Venerable Archdeacon Hinchliffe to present certificates and badges to the following girls on their graduation from JA to GA: Marianne Stewart, Marilyn MacKay, Mavis Grainger, Margaret Blake and Roberta Lambert.

The rector opened the dinner with grace. The toast to the Queen was given by toastmaster Betty Gregory, GA president. Following the singing of God Save the Queen, a sing song was conducted by Mrs. Agnes Harris with Mrs. Maude Towsley at the piano.

The toast to the Church was given by Jackie Mynott and the reply given by Mr. Hinchliffe who pointed out that all members of a church or church group had an obligation to show to the world the spirit of God in their every day lives.

Mr. Hinchliffe introduced the leaders of the two groups to the mothers as follows: G. A. leader, Mrs. H. Lacey; assistants, Mrs. D. Scott and Mrs. G. Stewart.

Helping with sewing this year was Mrs. E. Cambridge; with Mrs. G. Brownridge, and with folk dancing, Mrs. W. Jarrett.

J. A. leaders Mrs. S. H. Blake, with assistants Mrs. W. L. Harris, Mrs. Wm. Geravelis, Mrs. F. Towsley and Miss Diane Connors.

Marianne Stewart gave the toast to the mothers which was replied to by Mrs. Mary Smyth. Following the presentation of certificates, Margaret Blake, JA president, thanked the WA for the wonderful supper they had prepared for the occasion.

Heather Cotton played quiet music on the piano while the girls of the GA amused the audience with a very humorous skit entitled "School Daze" followed by community singing lead by Mrs. Olga Stewart. The girls of the JA sang three selections from Africa, the country which they studied this year: "Che Che Kole", "The Magic Tom - Tom", and a hymn from East Africa. The evening closed with a benediction.

Archbishop Pays 'Rail Visit' to Biscotasing

A highlight of Archbishop Wright's visit to the CPR line was at the church at Biscotasing where His Grace conducted the service of Evensong. With him outside the church is T. J. Davidson, summer student, and three members of the congregation.

Dedication at Ramsay Is Followed by Picnic

RAMSAY — Sunday, May 23, was a memorable day for residents of Ramsay, on the CPR line between Sudbury and Chapleau. On this, the first Sunday after Ascension Day, a new church was dedicated to the Glory of God by Most Rev. W. L. Wright, DD, DCL, and given the name of St. Andrew's.

After a service of Holy Communion Sunday morning the incumbent, Rev. L. Hoover, and the summer student, T. J. Davidson met the train which carried His Grace, the archbishop, and Rev. L. Peterson, former incumbent of the CPR line and now of Elliot Lake, and Mrs. Peterson. Following dinner prepared by Mrs. Jack Bigger the service of dedication was conducted.

After service a picnic was held at the community centre at Ramsay, sponsored by the ladies of Ramsay, Sulton and other points. Thanking the ladies for the wonderful way in which the whole day was organized, Father Peterson remained his true self by relating a story which must have been told by the ancient fathers!

The afternoon was culminated by a tour of the KVP Pulp and Paper Company who aided in the construction of the church as well as donating flowers for the dedication.

The next stop on the agenda was Biscotasing where evensong was taken by His Grace; a baptism was conducted by Father Hoover; and the lessons were read by Mr. Davidson. The congregation is to be congratulated for the obvious hard work put into the preparation for the archbishop's visit, and also for the hospitality extended to the visitors. George Kohl was especially thanked for extending to them the use of his cottage.

CHOOSY DUCK

When a duckling won by a small boy in Phoenix, Ariz., at a state fair grew up and it was decided to set him free to join other full-grown ducks in a city park lagoon, the duck refused to remain with the group and, after several attempts to get him to stay, had to be taken back home.

At Callander

ESPANOLA — The May meeting of St. George's Anglican WA was held at the home of Mrs. Plaunt in McKerrrow. Mrs. Plaunt who is one of the oldest members of St. George's Anglican Church was quite active in the WA until about two years ago when her failing health forced her to retire from active participation in church work. Fifteen members attended the meeting.

In the report of activities for the past month, it was learned that the spring rummage sale was the most successful to date. Several members offered to be canvassers in the CNIB blitz to take place soon in Espanola and two members of the WA are attending the annual Diocesan meeting to be held in North Bay for three days commencing May 31.

The monthly Manitoulin Deanery meeting for the clergy was held in Espanola recently with seven clergy attending. The WA catered to a luncheon for the visitors in the Rectory. The WA recently donated a new electric range to the rectory and its efficiency was appreciated on this occasion.

In view of the fact that the two delegates would be away in North Bay for the regular meeting night in June, it has been decided to postpone the June meeting until Monday, June 13, in order that the members could hear the report of the annual meeting at this time. The last meeting of the season will take the form of a buffet supper and all members are invited to attend.
