ALGOMA ANGLICAN

PUBLISHED UNDER THE AUTHORITY OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE DIOCESE OF ALGOMA—THE ANGLICAN CHURCH OF CANADA

ILLUMINATED CROSS AT NEW TARENTORUS CHURCH
Holy Trinity congregation worked to keep cost under $60,000

Tarentorus Opens $100,000 Church; Cost To Parish $60,000

By REV. W. C. S. BANTING

TARENTORUS — Time was running out. Downstairs some of the boys were laboring mightily to get that coat of paint on the walls. It was slow progress on the block walls. The kitchen walls might be painted in time. In one corner the GA was doing its best to entertain Mrs. Nadeau. It was Tuesday night. We had to be ready for Thursday. "Could we get the door hung on the rear entrance? Those lock sets are a difficult job. Where are those pieces of trim for the entrance? All of the light fixtures have to be covered with shades. Who has a small brush we can use for this corner of the window frame? It's after midnight. We should be going home. Questions to be answered by somebody flew thick and fast."

Some took days of precious holidays to work round the clock in order to be as nearly finished as possible for the occasion. Thursday afternoon, late, we began laying the new blue carpet in the Chancel and Nave. Somehow we would be ready!

Then came Thursday 7.30 p.m. The church was filled. It looked beautiful. The flowers sent by contractors and suppliers added that necessary touch for the occasion. Clergy of the Deanery, representatives of the township council and school board, suppliers, contractors, friends from other parishes — all had gathered to see officially begun a new chapter in the life of the little white church at Huckson's Corner, Tarentorus.

The Service of Dedication, from the Archbishop's request for admittance at the "opening of the door" to the Blessing, will be long remembered. In his sermon His Grace reminded the congregation of primary duties and privileges as members of Holy Trinity and the Church in the larger sphere of endeavour. Following the Benediction of the Ornaments, the Dean, the Very Rev. Frank Nock, the Rural Dean, the Reverend Canon C. Noble, and the Incumbent, the Rev. W. C. S. Banting together vested the Altar, placed the Ornaments and lit the candles. Both the Dean and Rural Dean are previous Incumbents of Holy Trinity.

New furniture finished in a warm red tone of mahogany was built by Soo Mill and Lumber Company. The complementary mahogany trim and ceiling both serve to create a feeling of warmth in the church. A vibrant blue east wall in the sanctuary draws the eye to the focal point of the Altar. Terrazzo flooring of leasing brown, black and white will keep cleaning problems to a minimum. The large thermopane windows at each end of the church assure plenty of light. Two large steel crosses, one at either end have been fitted with blue and yellow neon lighting. These herald one's approach to Huckson's Corner. Ladies of the congregation have a fully equipped kitchen with ample cupboard

Yuletide Activities in the Diocese Are Reported in Stories and Pictures

Christmas is a time for rejoicing.

It is also a time for teas, bazaars, dinners, meetings, children's parties, welfare drives, special services and a host of other events. And, as Christmas was celebrated in this way throughout the land, so it was in the Diocese of Algoma.

Men's and women's groups in every parish were especially active. So were the young people's organizations. And, somehow, Santa Claus found the time to visit every church and chat a while with the children.

The Algoma Anglican's editorial staff was busy at Christmas, too, and much of this month's issue is taken up with pictures and stories of the Diocese's Yuletide activities.

There is also a well-rounded coverage of the year-end meetings, with reports on the affairs of 1960 and elections of officers for the new year.

THE ARCHBISHOP'S LETTER

In Quietness, Confidence . . . Is Strength

My dear People:

General Gordon once remarked that when things were critical, it was his habit to consult the prophet Isaiah. One of Isaiah's sayings which proved to be of considerable help was "In quietness and in confidence shall be your strength".

The year which opens upon us is filled with mistrust, suspicions and fears amongst nations. Scarcely a day passes but a new area of tension confronts the statesmen of the world. "Wars and rumors of wars" beset the national and international scene. Conflicting philosophies, many of which deny the existence of God, are struggling for permanent significance. It is true that in Canada we have much for which to be thankful. Sometimes I wonder if the citizens of our land really appreciate the spiritual and material heritage which is ours.

But the message of Isaiah still rings true in our age: "in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength". It is a sound piece of counsel, even apart from religion. Panic means powerlessness; anxiety is a source of weakness. The quiet heart what meets life in faith finds poise and confidence. God is with us. He is ready to supply all our needs. He is able to do for us exceeding abundantly, above what we ask or think. We all need these reminders of the ceaseless activity of God's love and care. What He desires of us is the quiet trust through which He can give us His love.

One of the dangers of our age is its extreme busy-ness. Inventions have saved manual labor. But the real effect of them is to increase the pace of living. Life is being speeded up all round. The result is that we tend to live on the surface, driven by the very machines we have created to serve us. We have no time to think, to pray, to listen to God. But how easily the daily duties are met when we become imbued with the power of God and rely on Him to see us through! Now is the time for quietness and confidence.

Members of Christ's Church should be the first to exemplify these qualities of quietness and confidence. People are not very likely to be attracted to Jesus Christ if they see communicants of the Church are just as impatient, just as worried, just as easily swayed by adversity, as others who have no God in whom to trust. It is the great claim of our Lord that He gives peace and confidence to those who trust in Him. And it is our business to show that that claim is justified in experience by letting people see, shining out of us, the joy and confidence which come from close communion with God.

If "God so loved the world that He gave His only-begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on Him should not perish but have everlasting life", then surely it is not difficult to believe that He will guide and guard us through all the troubles and difficulties of life.

"In quietness and in confidence shall be your strength". To me, these are reassuring words supported by our Lord's promise, "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world". If only we would try to carry out God's will today, we shall surely find that fresh supplies of His Grace will be ready for us when we face the problems of tomorrow.

We do not know the future, but we do know the God of the future; Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, today and forever. If only we will share His love with prayer, quietness, and confidence, we shall find that each day will bring grace and strength necessary to meet our tasks.

In the spirit of that affirmation I wish for you all God's richest blessings during 1961.

Your friend and Archbishop,
WILLIAM L. ALGOMA

Thumbnail Sketches

Many readers of the Algoma Anglican have asked from time to time for stories and pictures of the clergymen in the Diocese of Algoma. While many of them do appear here each month, they are merely names to the readers from outside their particular parish. Rev. Alfred Reimers of Nipigon has prepared a series of "thumbnail sketches" of the clergy for use in the Algoma Anglican. This month we are pleased to present the 13th of this series on the Rev. Murray Tipping:

The Rev. Murray Tipping believes that Christians can be soldiers and soldiers should be Christians; so, in addition to his parochial duties, he serves as Chaplain to the Algonquin Regiment of the Canadian Army Militia.

Born in Toronto in 1926, Father Tipping grew up in Norval and Brampton, worked at farming for a while, then took his college and seminary training at Huron College, London, Ont.

Ordained in 1953, Father Tipping spent four years in Sault Ste. Marie as assistant at St. Luke's Cathedral. While in the Soo he met and married his wife, Joan. They have two children: Lesley Ann, 3½ and Murray James, 2½.

Since 1957 the Tippings have been working hard to establish the new parish of Christ Church, North Bay. But during the summer Father Tipping finds time for fishing and during the winter he finds time for hockey.

Mrs. S. J. Berringer Was Oldest Member Of Lakehead Parish

FORT WILLIAM — One of the oldest living members of St. Luke's Anglican church, Mrs. S. J. (Elizabeth) Berringer, 85, of 214 North Harold street, died at home following a brief illness.

The former Elizabeth J. Paget, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Paget, she was born at the township of Tiny, county of Simcoe, Ont. She moved at an early age to Sundridge, Ont., with her parents and received her education there. Following a course at the model school of North Bay, she taught school for a short time and was married to Simon J. Berringer in 1896 at Sundridge.

They made their home at Detroit, Michigan, for seven years, moving to Fort William shortly after and, excluding two short periods when her husband was yard master at Kenora, Mrs. Berringer had resided here since.

Well known in the district, her home was her main interest and since the death of her husband in November, 1941, she had lived semi-retired.

She was a life member of St. Luke's Women's Auxiliary, the Women's Christian Temperance Union and charter member and oldest life member of Lodge No. 14, Order of the Royal Purple. She was a former member of the Canadian Daughters League.

Surviving are two daughters, Aleita (Mrs. B. A. Ward), at home, and Grace (Mrs. E. W. Rodgers), of 740 Harkness street; six sons, John H., of Chicago, Illinois; Orman E., of Winnipeg; Russel S., of Winnipeg; Fred O., of 226 South Marks street; Arthur B., of 300 South Norah street, and Harley, of 532 Piper Avenue; four brothers, Archibald, of New Westminster, B.C.; Russell, of Vancouver; Benjamin, of Salmon Arm, B.C., and Thomas, of Sundridge, Ont.; and one sister, Evelyn (Mrs. H. Quirt), of Peterborough. Nineteen grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren also survive.

Archbishop Wright Urges Full-Time Service to Church

SAULT STE. MARIE — A group of 110 young people of Algoma Deanery, were urged to meet the challenge of full-time service in the church.

The speaker was the Archbishop of Algoma, The Most Rev. W. L. Wright, who addressed all the candidates who had been confirmed by him during the past five years.

The archbishop counselled his hearers to ask whether God might be calling young men to be priests in the church, and young women to serve at least five years in areas where opportunities for full-time work were available.

The service was conducted by the Very Rev. F. F. Nock with St. Luke's choir in attendance.

Following the service the young people met in St. Luke's Hall where Rev. Canon C. B. Noble, Rural Dean of Algoma introduced Rev. Warren Banting, incumbent of All Saints Church and Holy Trinity. Rev. Banting showed a film which outlined the call to the ministry.

Three young people from different parishes, Pat Connolly, Helen Courtney, and Peter Wright, described in detail work being done in the Girls' Auxiliary, the Anglican Young People's Association and the Servers' Guild.

Other visiting clergy included Rev. B. King - Edwards, Garden River; Venerable Archdeacon J. S. Smedley, St. John's Church; and Rev. Kenneth Robinson of St. Joseph Island.

Gail Marshall, Deaconess at St. Luke's Cathedral also assisted in the program.

CAT LAW

Residents of Rutledge, Pa., have protested, via a court injunction, against the housing by two elderly sisters of 50 cats on the ground that such ownership violates a local law limiting to four the number of cats which may be kept in a single home.

Secretary of Diocese Speaker at Bracebridge

BRACEBRIDGE — There was a meeting of the Great Chapter of the Deanery of Muskoka at Bracebridge. This was attended by all but one of the clergy of the deanery plus most of the wardens and treasurers of the parishes and missions. Forty-six stood up to be counted.

A very fine turkey dinner was served in the parish house by the Evening Branch of the WA of which Mrs. House is the president. Rural Dean George Sutherland presided at the dinner and the meeting which followed.

The speaker of the evening was H. M. Monteith, executive secretary of the diocese. Mr. Monteith told of some of the exacting work of himself and his staff at the diocesan office. The financial receipts from all sources in 1960 would amount to just a few thousand dollars short of one million. Expansion had been great in 1960, he said. Twenty new church buildings and nine rectories had resulted from the Church Extension effort. Costs were going up every year and the demands of the general church were steadily increasing.

Mr. Monteith was asked many questions which he readily answered thus clearing up a number of misunderstandings on the part of parishes and missions.

SCHEDULE PRESENTED

A schedule of apportionments asked of the various congregations for the missionary outreach of the diocese was presented by the Rural Dean. The aggregate of this was $11,935 which, in turn, was 15.7 per cent of the total asking of the diocese. After some adjustments were made as between various congregations the total amount was accepted for the year 1961. In the question period the Algoma Anglican came up for consideration and the matter was keenly debated. The cost and the editorial policy of the paper was discussed. A resolution dealing with the Algoma Anglican's future was carried by a majority vote. This will be forwarded to the executive committee of the diocese for consideration.

Mr. Monteith was warmly thanked for his presence and his help.

St. Chad's at Timmins Entertains Its Rector

TIMMINS — The members of the choir and the servers guild of St. Chad's Anglican Church were entertained at the rectory by Rev. J. Mather and Mrs. Mather to an informal Christmas party.

After singing a number of carols, a variety of entertainment was presented with refreshments served by Mrs. Mather and Mrs. Doreen Carroll. Small gifts were presented to the organist, Miss Margaret Stratford, by the choir and Mr. Mather, who expressed the appreciation of all to the organist.

Present were C. A. Hornett, C. Redda, R. Fournier, Alan and

Frank Poole, Lyn Dunlop, Vincent Chicoine, David Mather, Mrs. E. Smyth, Mrs. W. Kennard, Miss M. Stratford, Miss B. Strickland, Miss C. Strickland, Miss S. Chicoine, Mrs. D. Carroll and A. Kennard.

GET BUSY!

When a patrolman in Columbus, Ohio, found three small boys amusing themselves by letting the air out of the tires of automobiles, he handed them a tire pump and ordered them to pump up all the flat tires.

Walter E. Polhill Dies at Lakehead; Early Member Fort William Church Choir

FORT WILLIAM — Former city alderman in 1931 and an original member of the Fort William Male Choir, Walter E. Polhill Sr., of 348 North John street, died in hospital following a brief illness. He was 79.

Born at Stratham, Surrey, England, he received his education at the Gordon boy's private school in Dover. His parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cowley Squier Polhill, were theatrical people and he spent his early life travelling with them throughout England and made several appearances with them on stage.

He was married to the former Lily Austin in England in 1901. In 1910 they moved to Canada and Toronto, shortly after, coming to Fort William where they have lived since. For many years the family home was at 613 Wiley Street.

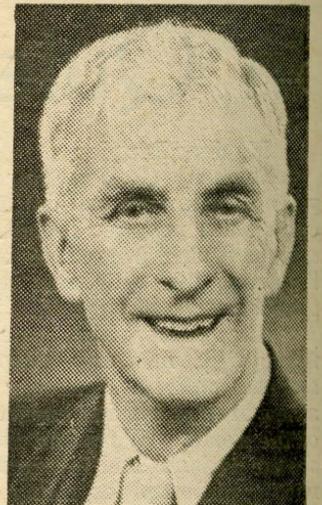

Prior to his retirement in 1946 Mr. Polhill was employed as engineer at the Grain Exchange building for over 30 years.

A long-time member of St. Luke's Anglican Church, he had served as rector's warden and was a delegate to the Algoma Synod. # AMEN CORNER

By ROLAND F. PALMER SSJE

THE OFFERTORY is the section of the Communion Service for the preparation of the things and persons needed in order to "do this in remembrance" of our Lord. In olden times the people brought the fruit of their labors in the form of food, clothing, oil and wax for the lights. Out of these the poor were helped, and out of these the bread and the wine and other necessities for the Eucharist were taken.

Nowadays we bring our offerings in money with which the poor are helped, the clergy supported, and the Gospel sent forth into the world. The money is the fruit of our labor and is a token that we do all our work because God has given it to us to do. The bread and wine for the service are bought with this money. The Priest reads the offertory sentences and meanwhile the wardens come forward to pick up the plate and to collect the people's offerings.

If desired, they may bring forward from a shelf at the back of the church the box of bread and the cruet of wine. The priest or server receives these and carries them to the credence table.

While the collection is being made the priest prepares the paten and chalice. The wardens bring forward the money offerings (alms). The priest humbly presents and places them on the Holy Table. He then presents and places on the Lord's Table the paten and chalice containing the bread and wine (the oblations).

The wardens wait while priest and people humbly bow their heads and say the sentence of presentation "Blessed be thou Lord God of Israel etc." page 74. Other men, women, or children may bring forward the bread box and cruet of wine instead of the wardens doing this.

It shows that we all have a part in providing the outward and visible part of the holy Sacrament. Whether or not the wardens or others bring forward the bread and wine these offerings are made by the whole people of God. They are the results of men's labors. How happy a Christian farmer would be to know that the wheat he raised was being used for the Holy Communion. All our work should be done in the spirit of offering it to God.

Murillo WA Activities Reported

MURILLO — The Woman's Auxiliary of St. James' church held its meeting at the rectory with 10 members present and president Mrs. R. Baxendale, conducting the meeting.

After the scripture reading and prayer by the president, correspondence and minutes were read and the delegates to the fall deanery meeting gave a report. Church calendars for the coming year were ordered and finished articles of bazaar work were handed in.

A whist drive Nov. 9, proved a success, with six tables played.

The annual Christmas dinner and bazaar was held Dec. 3. Mrs. Les Stevenson was convener of the dinner and maker of the plum pudding that accompanied the turkey. The Altar Guild had charge of a bake table and home produce.

The annual meeting on Dec. 7 was held at the home of Mrs. Gilbert Davis with an exchange of gifts. Father Paterson closed the meeting with prayer and the hostess served a dainty lunch.

"THE INFALLIBLE VICAR"

By The Rev. M. P. Thomas

A new Vicar came to our Parish.
He was not like the old one at all.
His ideas were all very "High Church",
So his leanings became his down-fall.
With candles all over the Altar,
And incense fumes thick in the air;
We soon got quite sick of that Vicar,
And we wished that the old one was there.

The next Vicar came to our Parish.
He was not like the old one a bit.

His ideas were all very "Low Church".
In our Parish he was a mis-fit.
With his evangelical sermons,
And his "no smoking, no drinking" track;
We quickly got sick of that Vicar,
And we wished that the old one was back.

This tale is so often repeated,
The present Vicar does everything wrong.

The last Vicar's always the better.

But that's not till after he's gone!

Now the moral of this sad story

Is quite simple, although quite unfair.

The fallible Priest is the Vicar;
The infallible one left last year!

WHAT A RECTOR NEEDS

The strength of an ox.
The tenacity of a bulldog,
The daring of a lion,
The patience of a donkey,
The industry of a beaver,
The versatility of a chameleon,
The vision of an eagle,
The melodies of a nightingale,
The meekness of a lamb,
The hide of a rhinoceros,
The disposition of an angel,
The resignation of an incurable,
The loyalty of an apostle,
The heroism of a martyr,
The faithfulness of a prophet,
The tenderness of a shepherd,
The fervency of an evangelist,
The devotion of a mother.
(These "poems" reprinted from The Church Gazette, published by the Diocese of Rockhampton, Australia)

A PARSON'S PRAYER ...

Lord, teach me how to sing
to Thee
And praise Thy holy name.
That in my song Thy flock shall see
Thou art eternally the same.

Pour Thy love into my empty soul
My heart with understanding fill
Make this earthly body new and whole
And lead me to Thy holy

space, a new gas range, hot water, sufficient dishes and cutlery for immediate needs — such facilities as they have been looking forward to since 1917.

Just because the church has been Dedicated does not mean the men have ceased to work. In the spring parking facilities, landscaping and general beautifying will be continued. Almost any week night you will find two or three busy finishing up the many extras which could not be done earlier. Now they work at ease without the pressure to meet a deadline facing them. The sound system designed and built by one of our own men is one of the finest. When the opportunity for broadcasting comes the wiring is all in place ready for the day.

Many hundreds of hours have been given by "our little gang," as I like to describe them affectionately, to make the new church a reality, and to save us many dollars. Generous donations, particularly by Algoma Steel Corporation to mention only one, have made this dream possible. Strategically located on Highway 17, we are ready to serve all who visit the area. There is seating accommodation for 225. To all our contractors we extend our sincere thanks for their work on Holy Trinity. Now the work of serving our community has begun on a much larger scale. Scouts, Cubs, men's clubs, couples club — these and many more activities are now possible. The cost? — less than $60,000! The value of physical assets? — more than $100,000! How was this possible? — judicious planning, hard work, competitive bidding by contractors, and a big assist from those who have been interested in what we are doing; this made the new Holy Trinity.

Minnow Lake Kitchen Busy At Yule Tea

SUDBURY — A ruby-cheeked Santa with his reindeer formed a striking focal point on the main tea table at the annual pre-Christmas tea and bazaar of St. George's Church Woman's Auxiliary, Minnow Lake.

A festive Yuletide decorative motif created a pleasant atmosphere at the evening party organized this year by the president Mrs. E. Bawden reporting as general convener. Helping her were Mrs. A. H. Wicks, ticket convener; Mrs. R. Currie and Mrs. E. Schroeder, bazaar table; Mrs. C. Armitage and Mrs. R. Rogers, bake table conveners.

Mrs. A. Graham and Mrs. G. Gilroy set up a popular white elephant table, stocked with a huge variety of interesting "nearly new" articles.

MANY COMPLIMENTS

Dining room hostess Mrs. E. Kohlsmith received many compliments for her attractively arranged tea tables. Laid with shiny white damask cloths, they were gaily decorated with glowing red poinsettias and lighted candles.

Those who waited on the guests were: Mrs. B. Sims, Mrs. A. Wilson, Mrs. A. Clattenburg, Mrs. E. L. Dorey, Mrs. R. V. Junkula and Mrs. G. A. Costello.

Mrs. T. Lee looked after an intriguing touch and take table, filled to overflowing with brightly wrapped parcels of all shapes and sizes.

Members of the busy kitchen staff were Mrs. A. Carding, Mrs. H. Currie and Mrs. J. Sawdon.

Others who worked behind the scenes in the kitchen were Mrs. C. Gatchell and Mrs. W. J. Comrie.

LAST WORD

"Who decides where you and your wife will go for your holidays?"

"I do, of course. She says where she'd like to go and I say, 'Right! That's settled.'"

Young Carollers at St. John's North Bay Bring Good Cheer

Christmas baskets for older members of the congregation were delivered by young people from St. John's Church, North Bay, who also sang carols outside the homes they visited. From left, Rev. R. Barnes, Dawn Peever, Barbara Fraser, Gerry Patterson, Ann Dougan, Mervyn Sheridan, Beverley Cliffe, Barbara Thurlow, "Butch" Martin, Norman McCallan, Bruce Bain, Sam Panos and Pamela Weald. The carol singing and baskets were well received.

ANGLICAN SIDELIGHTS

In the Sahara Desert it was quite warm. Three travellers were walking along, but suddenly one stopped dead still and looked around at all the sand.

"What's the matter?"
"I'm homesick."
"We are, too."
"But it's worse for me. Back home . . . Dad has a brewery!"

In a Kansas town, motorists who ignored "No Parking" signs in front of a church refrained from parking there when the signs were changed to read, "Thou Shalt Not Park." They probably thought a new commandment had been added to the original 10.

A gentleman we know remarked to his maid one warm day last week that it certainly looked as if the summer was going to be a scorcher. "These summers are getting hotter all the time," the maid replied. "It's been that way ever since they opened that Gulf Stream."

Englehart Kiddies See Santa Claus

ENGLEHART — The Sunday School of Christ Anglican Church met in the church basement where a very enjoyable program was presented. ## CHRISTMAS POEM

A Christmas thought from a tiny white-haired grandmother, Mrs. Amelia Petersen of Timmins, who began writing poetry after her 70th birthday.

CHRISTMAS EVE IN THE HOMELAND

It was Christmas in the homeland,
Our hearts and faces bright,
The white snow softly falling,
The windows ablaze with light;

There was holly around the pictures
And mistletoe over the door,
The carols seemed sweeter than ever,
We were happy as never before.

There was peace that morn in the homeland,
On that quiet and glad Christmas Day,
When we walked through the snow together,
To the little old church to pray;

When the old village bells are ringing,
In the homeland so far away,
I shall dream that I hear you singing,
As you sang on that glad Christmas Day.

The old folk back in the homeland,
Will be drinking a toast to me,
"You're safe in our hearts forever,
God bless you where'er you may be;"

And the love in their eyes will be shining
Through the tears I never shall see,
Yet through in my heart oft repining,
This new land is homeland to me.

The writer, who is now in her 80's, a native of Lancashire, England, is residing with her daughter Mrs. J. Edgar Nelson, 96 First Ave., Schumacher.

Words of the Wise

Egotism is the anesthetic which nature gives us to deaden the pain of being a fool.
—Herbert Shofield

Two things are bad for the heart — running up stairs and running down people.
—Bernard M. Baruch

They who say all men are equal speak an undoubted truth; if they mean that all men have an equal right to liberty, to their property and to their protection of the laws. But they are mistaken if they think men are equal in their station and employments, since they are not so by their talents.
—Voltaire

200 at Cache Bay WA Annual Turkey Dinner

CACHE BAY — The Woman's Auxiliary turkey supper at Cache Bay is now regarded as an annual highlight and the event this year was attended by over 200 persons at St. Barnabas church.

The long tables were groaning under the quantity of food, the large platters of carved turkey with dressing were constantly replenished, and a constant stream of vegetables dishes, creamed potatoes, sliced carrots, turnip puree, cole slaw, and salads were issuing from the kitchen.

A happy buzz of conversation and excitement filled the Canon Goodier Hall as places were vacated and quickly filled again—everyone voted that they had eaten too much and that the service had been very efficient. This is a remarkable compliment when the large venture is undertaken by a WA which has only seven active members. Active is the key word as they also provide a lunch every Thursday for their weekly card party.

This year their list of activities includes, a farewell turkey supper to the Rev. W. Thistle and family, a pea soup and pancake supper, bake sale, teenage dauces, a special lunch on the occasion of the visit of His Grace, The Archbishop of Algoma. The WA members also have painted the outside of the church and hall as well as keeping the inside of same spotless, and the linen and vestments immaculate.
