Dear Mr Westmacott,

The two bales of clothing quilts, books, toys, groceries &c kindly sent by yr. la. reached Shrewsbury safely and in good order yesterday. I have just finished unpacking them and hasten to write and thank you and the members of yr Senior and Junior Branches for yr. kind and acceptable gifts. Everything sent is gratefully received.

most useful. The quilts and clothing were particularly needed and will be in use before this reaches you. The books, toys and candies I shall try to secure for Christmas time

From King desires me to thank you for yr. letter of 22nd ultimo and to especially thank the seniors for the wight dresses so beautifully made and which will be so useful for the two little day girls.

From King 10th have written

Dear Sir,

I had hoped that Mr. Benson would have made some effort to have carried out the numerous promises made to repay the $100 advanced to him during his last visit to the Shingonah, but I fear Mr. Benson's principles are such that he is not likely to fulfil them unless made to do so.

I am desirous that you should know the facts of the case from myself.

Walter Reed Esq.
 Ottawa.

- During his visit Dr Benson represented to me that he was short of travelling expenses - he told me that you were away from Ottawa when he left home and attributed this as the cause of his predicament.
 " He said it would be alright " however directly he returned " to Ottawa. Dr Reed would " give him a cheque for his " expenses.
 I promised to help him over the difficulty if I could and succeeded in obtaining $100 which I advanced to him.
 - Dr. Benson

Mr. Benson advised
 Charles to remit the money directly, he returned to Ottawa and then just before leaving said it might be a couple of weeks perhaps before you gave him the cheque.

It is now over 12 months since the money was advanced.
 I have written repeatedly for its repayment. My last letter Mr. Benson has not even thought it necessary to reply to — $100 represents a large sum to me, and I can ill afford to lose it. — I beg to
