In commending the Shingwauk and Wawanosh Homes to the liberality of the Christian public, as I now do without reserve, I wish to emphasize the fact that our needs at the present time are unusually great. This is due in part to special expenses arising from sickness and other causes during the past year, and in part to the falling off of contributions through the increasing demands of general missionary work.

I am most gratefully conscious of the debt we owe to our many generous friends and I confidently count upon their continued and undiminished aid.

GEORGE ALGOMA.

PRINCIPAL'S REPORT.

To the Friends and Supporters of our Indian Homes :

My Dear Friends,—It is again my opportunity and privilege to speak to you of our work in the Shingwauk and Wawanosh Homes, and to heartily thank you for your co-operation and help during the past year.

To earnestly plead for a continuance of your support and for a wider, more liberal recognition from the Church at large, is a necessity.

The betterment of the Red-man's children, the uplifting, morally, socially, and spiritually these destitute children of a benighted race is pre-eminently a work of charity, and hence God's work, and should appeal irresistibly to our sense of Christian responsibility. But put higher motives aside if you can and judge the work from a purely utilitarian point of view; every dollar spent on education which will fit the young Indians to become bread-winners is a dollar well invested, for, whether as practical tillers of the soil, mechanics, or domestics, they then become factors in our labor markets and the country's development.

The willingness of the young Indians to be taught, their desire to improve themselves mentally and socially when once adopted into the homes, their perseverance and aptitude is unquestionable, and is shown in the results of our work.

The Bishop of Algoma, speaking of our Institutions, says: "The Shingwauk and Wawanosh Homes are admirable Institutions in admirable running order," and I would further respectfully submit they are unsurpassed by any other similar institution in Canada in their methods for inculcating knowledge, in dealing with the Indian peculiarities and character, in the thoroughness of the training given and care of the children as well as in the results achieved generally.

And yet these old Church of England Homes are to-day debarred from carrying little more than one-half their complement of pupils for lack of means.

I frankly admit my keen disappointment in receiving no assistance from the Missionary Society of the Church of England in Canada during the past year.

When that Society specially pleaded for such work as ours in its stirring Lenten appeal to our Sunday School children in March last I anticipated, and reasonably, a proportion of the generous offerings given. I say "generous" since our Canadian Sunday School children have warm hearts, and are taught to give. But we received nothing.

It remained for Algoma to assist the Homes in their necessity from all too inadequate Diocesan funds, and to the extent of $425.00, thus reducing the year's deficit to $348.64. Just how sorely needed was this $425.00 for other and equally important work in our Missionary Diocese may be surmised, but not easily gauged.

It is not as though our pupils were drawn exclusively from Algoma. As a matter of fact the majority of our children come to us from other and older dioceses in Eastern Canada. I mention these facts, therefore, in justice to Algoma, and because many of you are good enough to invite me from time to time to tell you of our difficulties as well as the brighter side of the work.

The number of pupils enrolled at the beginning of the year was 60. Eleven boys and four girls were admitted during the year. Three boys and three girls were honorably discharged; three boys and one girl died of consumption; three boys and three girls were sent home on sick leave, and one boy deserted, thus leaving in the Institutions at this date 37 boys and 21 girls.

Of this number 17 are motherless children, 14 fatherless, and 11 have neither father nor mother.

The following tribes are thus represented :

Ojibway .....	36
Cree .....	10
Iroquois .....	9
Delaware .....	1
Mohawk .....	1
Pottawattamie .....	1

In addition to receiving religious and secular instruction, the girls are taught sewing, laundry and domestic work, and the boys farming and carpentry, under the supervision of qualified instructors.

With the exception of the very little ones each child goes to school half a day and works at some individual trade or house work, as the case may be, the other half; hence a morning school boy is an afternoon worker and vice versa. This arrangement permits of both the schools and trades being in operation the full day and of the necessary domestic and general work of the Institution being satisfactorily accomplished. The pupils now at the school are of the following ages :

From 6 to 8, inclusive	8
“ 9 “ 11, “	16
“ 12 “ 14, “	17
“ 15 “ 17, “	8

A gratifying feature of the year's work is the general, rather than individual, progress made by the pupils. Not only is this particularly noticeable in school work, where promotions were made in every class, but also in the satisfactory results achieved in all branches of manual work.

Our children have shown a keener disposition than ever before to appreciate and benefit by the splendid opportunities afforded them in the Shingwauk and Wawanosh Homes.

No greater stimulus than this, their diligence and perseverance, is needed to push forward with increased zeal and energy the work which lies before us.

In conclusion, let me heartily thank the Women's Auxiliary in Canada and the Algoma Association in England for their much valued and generous gifts of clothing and money, detailed acknowledgment of which is herein made. Nor is my gratitude less due to the S.P.C.K., London, England, for a continuance of its grant of ten scholarships of £10.0.0 each to the Shingwauk Home, together with similar aid to the Wawanosh Home; to the C. and C. C. Society, London, England, for a grant of £75.0.0; to the Clergy, Sunday School teachers and scholars, and to all who have in any way assisted our Indian Homes during the past year.

That each and all may continue their kind help and co-operation is my earnest hope and prayer.

Gifts of clothing may be sent to the Principal direct, accompanied by the names of the donors. Contributions in money should be sent to: (1) The Bishop of Algoma, Bishophurst, Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario; (2) George Ley King, Esq., Principal Shingwauk Home, Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario.

All contributions will be promptly and gratefully acknowledged. I am, yours faithfully,

G. LEY KING,
Principal.
