

Dear Jon

Benji and I are having an awesome time. There has been some really profound discussion that has got me seeing and thinking about things in new ways. There is so much strength and courage; it's renewing and I hope to take it with me.

Dear Jenna,

I am at the Journey Women exhibit in Saule's & Heine's
The paintings of the women are full of color, vibrant & alive with their stories. I feel like they are with me in the room. I see the wisdom of their stories through the eyes of the owl ... quietly watching the meaning of their life story drift into understanding. I wish you could see them again in this space. Reclamation. Reutilization.

Lucy

Wild spaces

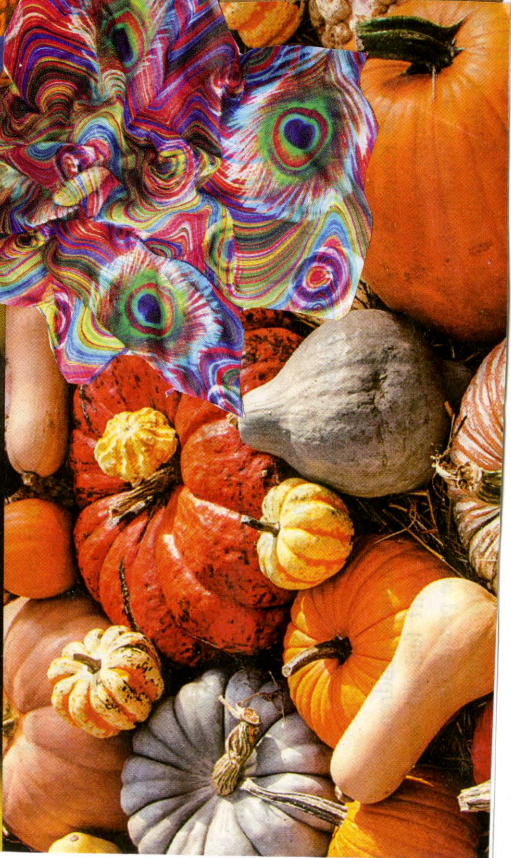

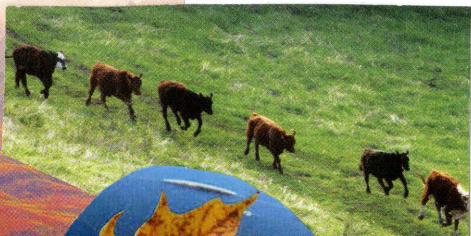

Hard-wired to survive

IN THE MOMENT
"As we stared at each other, we spoke volumes with our eyes, something talking humans have long forgotten."

Up Close and Wildly Personal

Evocative of the Resilience of Aboriginal Women

Dear M,

I wish you were here. The colours, feelings + experiences jump off the canvases. The exhibit is moving + inspiring. I feel ~~as~~ a range of emotions in this space - sad, hopeful, + strong. Resilient.

LEAD ON

Is Believing

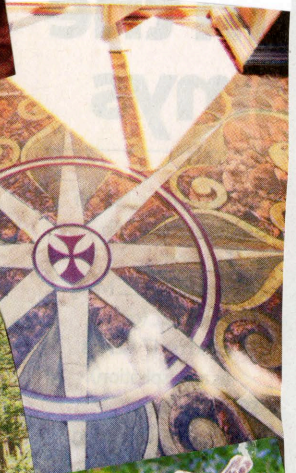

POWERFUL AND BEAUTIFUL.

STRENGTH; HIDDEN POWER

pause

North!

FAMILY TIME

Josely Exhibits made me think about life, love, hope, past, future.

