

Children to Children Art Installation Opening

“Children to Children” Gala Art Opening

December 7, 2013 7-10pm

180 Gore Street, Sault Ste Marie, ON

Shingwauk Residential School Survivor and Elder Shirley Horn, inter-generational survivor Shelly Fletcher, Zenith-Lillie Eakett and Dayna Rainville have created an art piece to honour Residential School Survivors and those students that did not make it home. The artists acknowledge the losses and the devastating effects upon all facets of First Nation life, but want to present a brighter future that is based on the truth, the reclamation of our traditions, and a better understanding between all Canadians and all children on Mother Earth.

“Children to Children” part of the Project of Heart Commemorating the Children of Future Generations Initiative will open on December 7th, 2013 at 7pm. Please join us at 180 Projects Gallery for the gala opening. Contact the Shingwauk Residential Schools Centre for more information, ShingwaukDG@algonau.ca or 705-949-2301 ext 4623
