AGENDA

1. Issue with T-Bird bar
2. Issues with last Thursday night's pub
3. Issues with the weekly DJ – Gene
4. This Thursday's pub
5. Update from last minutes

MINUTES

1. Michael witnessed Alicia giving 1 pitcher and 1 glass of beer for $6.00. Other students have commented about the bar staff giving away free drinks. This issue must be resolved and a meeting has to be set to discuss resolutions. Action #1.
2. Krishan did not arrange to collect door money or can donations at the pub, Thursday November 23rd, when he committed himself at the previous meeting to do so. Action #2.
3. Gene is not respecting the wishes of council and students. Cathy spoke with him and requested that he play a wider array of music in replace of the current selections. Krishan allegedly told him that the members of students' council do not like his selection and was reassured that the students are enjoying his mixes. To limit mixed messages, only one council member should deal with Gene, in hopes he obeys our wishes. Action #3.
4. The council will not be hosting a pub this Thursday's, however the bar will be open until 10:00pm to service the needs of the students before classes are ended. Action #4
5. The $100 that Marc borrowed from council is still outstanding, 2 weeks following the reminder letter that was given to him. Marc requests that council allows him to resume his duties as Finance Commissioner, despite his unexplained extended absence from his responsibilities. As insurance to his commitment, Marc agreed to deposit the outstanding $100.00 by Friday December 1st. As well as complete the financial books over the Christmas break, to be submitted in January to John Deluzio. Action #5, 6
  - The next meeting will be Saturday January 13th – A time and place have yet to be decided.
