Jamaican Officials Impressed by Lambton Farm Areas

of Bert. he was the speaker for the night*

The contrast between farming methods in Canada and the West Indies was pointed up by two officials of the Jamaican government visiting Lambton County. Mr. K. C. Logan MacLeod and Mr. Orville White, officials of the Jamaican Ministry of Agriculture, said coffee and pineapples replaced wheat and soybeans as staple crops. The visitors, touring co-operatives and agricultural organizations as far west as Saskatchewan, were highly impressed with the growth of the rural co-operative and the strength of the farm federation in Canada. Picture shows, front row, left to right, Mr. MacLeod, Mr. Bert Logan, president of the Lambton County Federation of Agriculture, and Mr. White; back, Mr. Ed O'Dell, secretary of the county federation, and Mr. Paul G. Muller, economist with the economics division, agriculture Ottawa.

CHILDREN IN APPROPRIATE SETTING REF

Easter is a time of joy and gladness symbolized in a material way by lilies, bunnies and colored and in the religious sense by exultation over the Resurrection of Christ. It marks emergence from the season of Lent with its drab and penitential atmosphere. Two Blackwell district children and their artificial bunnies pose before a bank of lilies in Prail's greenhouse to provide a scene of Easter. The pictures reflect the penitence associated with the religious festival of Easter. The girl on the left is Jayne Logan

The ceremony took place in the Sudbury High School auditorium. The first Indian girl to graduate from the school—lovely Honorine Stella Trudeau, of Wikwemikong, Manitoulin Island—was warmly applauded as she stepped forward to accept her diploma. The 19-year-old miss is pictured above, with Magistrate P. J. McAndrew, chairman, and Rt. Rev. R. H. Dignan, DD, of North Bay, bishop of the Roman Catholic diocese of Sault Ste. Marie. Honorine is a member of the Ojibway tribe.
